Authority appeals for funding help to soften blow of cuts

COUNCIL 'AT RISK OF CASH CRISIS'

BY JORDAN HARRIS

CANNOCK Chase Council is at 'high risk' of becoming financially unviable, a new report has revealed.

Government funding cuts and the closure of Rugeley Power Station, which will lose the council £1 million in business rates, mean bosses have deemed the authority needs to take action to secure its financial status.

The impact of the council becoming financially unviable would be that cuts would have to be made 'across all areas', according to deputy leader Gordon Alcott. The report also claims that if the council doesn't benefit from interim government support or make cuts, the authority would 'become too small to sustain'.

Councillor Alcott said: "Unfortunately we are in a position where we have already made cuts and we may have to make more in the future. There is no magic pot of money and if we don't get the help we need it could be that we could have to make cuts across all areas.

"We want to be able to carry on offering the services we have been elected to offer, and I believe we will get out of this, but it is going to be difficult."

Concerns

The news is contained in a report on the authority's 'strategic risk register', which marks up the likelihood of projects undertaken by the council facing problems.

On the latest edition of the register, being discussed at this week's cabinet meeting, the 'viability and funding of Cannock Chase Council' has been classed as a 'high risk'.

The authority has written to the Secretary of State for help with interim funding to address the issue, with leader George Adamson admitting cuts will have to be made if that isn't given. Councillor Adamson said the concerns were 'only temporary' and that the authority would continue to run after what he admits will be 'a rough couple of years'.

He said: "The main reason why the risk level associated with the viability of our council has gone up is the closure of Rugeley Power Station. Straight away there, we are losing nine per cent of our business rates, which is a blow.

"We have written to the Secretary of State to ask for help with interim funding but we haven't even had a courtesy letter back. I have now written to him again to ask if we can go down and speak to him face to face if they won't write back. I believe this is only a temporary problem and we will get through it, however it is going to be a rough couple of years."

PARTY TIME FOR QUEEN'S MILESTONE BIRTHDAY

Jane Wright and Val Loughrey celebrate at the Bevan Lee Community Centre in Cannock

CAKE, smiles and roof-raising renditions of the national anthem – there really was no better way to celebrate the Queen's 90th birthday at the weekend.

Thousands of people in Staffordshire and the Black Country turned out to events across the region to celebrate the milestone.

One of many party events in Staffordshire was held at the community centre in Bevan Lee Road, Cannock. It featured a magic show and a bouncy castle, and organiser Jane Wright said: "We wished Her Majesty many happy returns – what a marvellous woman."

Pupils and staff from Redhill Primary School in Cannock celebrated by holding a street party and an afternoon of games.

The occasion was also marked by the official planting of an oak tree by the eldest member of each class in a special ceremony.

Many of the parties used the occasion to not only celebrate the Queen's life and reign, but also that of the community in which they live, St Matthew's Close in Walsall being a perfect example. Speaking about Saturday's event and the Queen herself, Mr Trood said: "It was a great event. I think we are absolutely blessed to have such an amazing Queen."

And in London, the Duke of Cambridge paid a heartfelt tribute to the Queen telling her: "Granny, thank you for everything you've done for your family."

The 10,000 guests gathered in The Mall for an event celebrating the Queen's patronage of more than 600 charities and organisations had spent much of the day under ponchos braving heavy downpours.

But after the Queen made an appearance the sun soon broke through.

WEATHER

Havoc as roads hit by flooding

FLASH floods caused havoc throughout Cannock as shops were evacuated and cars became stuck in the water.

Shops at Cannock Shopping Centre were among those that closed early because of the torrential rain on Friday.

And despite being soaked to the skin, three 'heroines' – parish clerk Sian Carpenter and Great Wyrley Community Centre staff Judy Earp and Debbie Taylor – kept storm water at bay so an afternoon tea celebrating the Queen's birthday went ahead.

ENTERTAINMENT

Music legend in flying visit home

CANNOCK music legend Glenn Hughes has returned home to visit his mother ahead of a busy few months for the former Deep Purple bassist.

The 64-year-old, who lost his father William this year, shared a picture of him and his mother Sheila on Twitter, with a message declaring 'all is well'.

The bassist is in the UK visiting for a few days before flying to France to perform in front of 80,000 fans. He will also be starting work on his first solo album in eight years in the coming weeks.

PLANNING

Industrial unit bid at old quarry site

AN industrial unit could be built on part of a former quarry site in Cannock.

A planning application for the 8,300 ft sq unit, plus car parking, at Gallan Park, Watling Street, is up for public consultation.

The proposed unit will be within the existing industrial estate park, while also on a site which was at one time part of the former Walkmill Lane Quarry.

In a report prepared for the consultation, officers at Staffordshire County Council said the quarry was once worked for clay.

"This strongly suggests that any viable mineral beneath the application site will already have been worked," the report said.

Grace takes plunge in daredevil feat

Grace Moore of Cannock

THE sky's the limit for a Cannock teenager who is taking the plunge for charity. Grace Moore is undertaking a sponsored skydive in aid of the UK's leading eating disorder charity.

The 18-year-old will plunge from 14,000ft to raise funds and awareness for B-eat.

She is currently sitting her A-levels and is hoping to secure a place studying sports nutrition at university.

She will make her tandem jump at Langar Airfield, Nottinghamshire on July 10.

Grace said: "Despite the stigma attached to eating disorders declining there is still a way to go. I am more determined than ever before to actively challenge this stigma and the misconceptions they face, take away the hush-hush aspect of this very taboo topic.

"Eating disorders are not just about food and weight, and I think that is a particularly important message to get across," she added.

Grace, who has already exceeded her initial fundraising target, added: "It really is a fantastic cause, one very close to my heart, and a lifeline for many. Without funding they would not be able to carry out the amazing work they do. For those who know me well, it's fair to say I undoubtedly thrive of any kind of challenge, big or small, so to be given this opportunity my initial thoughts, along with a surge of adrenaline of course, were that I was doing it.

"This is by far the greatest challenge I've signed up to as of yet, I'm slightly nervous but buzzing with excitement.

"It is a challenge in itself, and like any other, with enough determination and commitment it can be accomplished."

Boy, 12, struck by car on his way to school

A 12-YEAR-OLD boy was seriously injured when he was hit by a car in Heath Hayes on his way to school.

The youngster, who attends Kingsmead School in Hednesford, was struck by a Ford Fiesta at the junction of Hemlock Way and Sidon Hill Way shortly after 8am on Monday.

He was flown by the Midlands Air Ambulance to Birmingham Children's Hospital with a broken jaw and a punctured lung.

West Midlands Ambulance Service sent an ambulance, a paramedic area support officer, a community paramedic in a rapid response vehicle and a community first responder to the scene, as well as the helicopter from Cosford.

A spokesman for the service said: "Crews arrived to find a 12-year-old boy with a number of serious injuries following a collision with a car. He was assessed and treated for head, arm, leg and abdominal injuries.

"He was immobilised and given pain relief before being airlifted to Birmingham Children's Hospital. Unfortunately, his injuries were extremely serious.

Upset

"The driver of the car, a woman, was uninjured in the incident."

Ian Bryant, headteacher at Kingsmead School, said staff and pupils were 'very upset' to hear one of their pupils had been involved. He added: "Our thoughts are with him and his family."

Friends of the injured pupil, including a friend who witnessed the incident, were allowed to go home early on Monday.

Pat Handley, who lives off Sidon Hill Way, said she heard a 'bang' at the time of the accident. "I didn't see, I just heard a bang and somebody scream out. It was between 8am and 8.10am," she said.

"It was bedlam for a while. The air ambulance landed on the grass just over the road. That's what made me think it was serious.

"I saw his dad and brother come running down. It was horrific. I don't know what they must be going through, my heart goes out to them."

Staffordshire Police spokesperson Hazel Dockery said: "He has some broken bones and his condition is described as 'stable'."

Truck Taylor-made for award winner

Employee of the Year Katie Taylor and the truck named in her honour at APC Overnight

A PARCEL firm worker has named employee of the year has taken delivery of her prize – a truck named in her honour.

Katie Taylor, of Perton, took the honour at the APC Overnight All Depot Meeting annual awards for her influential role as acting day operations manager – part of the day operations team at the company's national sortation centre at Kingswood Lakeside, Cannock.

She beat other nominees who had been named employee of month over the last year. A spokesman said her diligence, particularly while managing high numbers of warehouse employees during APC Overnight's busy Christmas period, showed her to be a dedicated employee worthy of recognition.

To mark her achievement the courier company has named one of its 44 tonne articulated lorries after her. The vehicle, Katie Victoria, is already out on the road and delivering important parcels to APC Overnight's 115 depots nationwide. Katie said: "I really didn't expect to win the award so I am over the moon. It's strange to think that my name is going to be travelling up and down the country on a truck carrying parcels."

APC Overnight CEO Jonathan Smith said: "Katie is a shining example of the committed team we have here at APC Overnight. We realise that our reputation relies on every delivery and we are delighted to be able to recognise those employees that go the extra mile."

Magistrates court set to close before end of year

STAFFORD Magistrates' Court is set to close by the end of the year, the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) has confirmed.

It means cases will be switched to either Cannock or to North Staffordshire Magistrates Court in Newcastle-under-Lyme.

The Government confirmed earlier this year that the court would shut in an attempt to save £213,000 annually. The MoJ had said it wanted to shut Stafford's court sometime between October and December.

December has now been earmarked as the most likely date for closure.

Councillor Maureen Compton, whose Stafford Central ward includes the magistrates' court, said: "We are the county town and we really do need a magistrates' court. It is a problem for people to travel either to Newcastle or to Cannock.

"It doesn't seem right to me."

Meanwhile a plan which would leave Sandwell as the only Black County borough without a magistrates' court is set to rumble on until at least November.

Savings of about £407,000 a year are anticipated by closing Sandwell Magistrates' Court between June and September.

But now the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) say the court is likely to remain open for cases until at least November.

Staff will be moved to Walsall, Wolverhampton and Dudley Magistrates' Courts once Sandwell's is finally axed.

It is part of a national plan to shut 86 around the country.

Dog lover Dave picks up award

A DOG lover from Staffordshire has been rewarded for his commitment to man's best friend with a Kennel Club award. Dave Deakin was honoured at the Kennel Club's Good Citizen Dog Training Scheme awards night.

The awards recognise the efforts of individuals, canine organisations and local authorities nationwide who have invested their time and energy into helping to train dogs and educate their owners on the importance of responsible dog ownership.

Dave, a member of the British Institute of Professional Dog Trainers and a Kennel Club Accredited Instructor, received the special award in recognition of his work in co-ordinating Good Citizen Dog Scheme testing at General Championship dog shows.

New train is named after city's art festival

A TRAIN among a new London Midland fleet has been named Lichfield Festival. The rail operator has given one of its newest class 350 trains the name to mark its support for the annual event, which this year is being held from July 1-10.

The train was officially named by Julian Lloyd Webber at a ceremony on Tuesday at Euston Station. Festival performers and patrons gathered on platform 17 after disembarking from Lichfield Trent Valley Station.

Commercial director for London Midland, Richard Brooks, said: "This is the third year we have sponsored the festival and we wanted to do something special to mark our support of this exciting event. It is very rare that London Midland names a train, and we are delighted to be naming a Class 350 train 'Lichfield Festival' in recognition of us being the principal partner for the festival."

From December, London Midland will be adding a further two trains to the evening service from London Euston to Lichfield Trent Valley.

Lichfield Festival director, Jennifer Mears, said: "It is unusual for an arts organisation to have a train named after it. A naming ceremony such as this stands as a permanent testament to the unique role which the festival plays in bringing exciting artistic performances of an international calibre to Staffordshire and beyond."

Lichfield Festival performers this year include comedian Rob Beckett, folk singer Kate Rusby and film critic Mark Kermode.

Museum numbers show another fall

THE Museum of Cannock Chase has again seen its visitor numbers fall despite strong investment.

It recorded a decrease of two per cent in visits despite investing in its exhibition hall. It had also varied its activities and events programme for 2015-16 year but that was not able to buck the trend.

The figures come from an annual performance review of Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust, which runs Cannock Chase's culture and leisure services.

It says: "The total number of visits has decreased again this year (down by two per cent).

"However, 2015-16 saw overall usage and engagement with the museum significantly exceed target and the previous year's performance."

Vintage fair at heritage railway

A VINTAGE fair will be held at Chasewater Railway on July 24.

Admission to the event, which is being advertised as 'dog friendly', is free and there will be up to 50 stalls, entertainment and dancing all day.

Historic building can be used for housing

Historic Heron Court in Rugeley

A HISTORIC building in Rugeley is in line to be saved after councillors agreed it can be used for housing. Heron Court, built in 1851, is now owned by the town's snooker club.

It wants to preserve it by allowing developers to restore its inside – and preserve some of its best gothic features outside.

One plan which could cost up to £1.7m includes turning Heron Court itself into 11 flats and then building another eight flats and two three-bedroom houses on land behind it.

Rugeley Snooker Club president Nick Lyons said: "We aren't making a decision at the moment but our main concern is looking after our lovely building. The main reason we went for the application is because we cannot afford the upkeep."

Some residents are opposed to the project because of the potential height of the apartment building. However, council officials said the application would grant only outline permission.

Cannock Chase District Council's planning committee unanimously passed the plan at a meeting last Wednesday. Heron Court, a building included in the Rugeley Town Centre Partnership Scheme, was built by Joseph Whitgreave, a co-founder of St Joseph and St Etheldreda Church, on Lichfield Street.

The Sisters of the Christian Retreat used the building from 1903 and the Rugeley Billiards Club bought the building about 40 years ago.

Rugeley's Landor Local History Society agreed the 19th century building would need to remain prominent and unhidden by any apartment building but were keen to see it restored to its former glory.

Flash flooding brings chaos to town's roads

By Tom Oakley

TORRENTIAL downpours in Cannock caused chaos as flooding saw shops shut and roads turned into rivers.

Cannock Shopping Centre was evacuated along with several other shops in the town, after heavy rained began at around 2pm on Friday.

Firefighters were called to the Compton Hospice charity shop in Church Street after water leaked inside and there were fears it would reach the electrics.

B&M, which is nearby, was evacuated following a power cut, and the car park was flooded. Natal Chapman, centre manager at Cannock Shopping Centre, said: "We hope the public can understand that shopper safety is our number one priority."

On the A5190 Lichfield Road and Girton Road, near Cannock railway station, rain water filled the roads up to knee-height after a drain appeared to have given way.

Cars create waves in Lichfield Road

Closed

The floods meant traffic had to slow down to a crawl and cars were queuing from all directions around the town centre.

Flooding on the A5 Watling Street closed the road between Longford Island and Churchbridge Island. It also closed the Lichfield Road between Eastern Way and Norton Road.

Councillor Gordon Alcott, who represents the Cannock North ward, said it was the worst weather he had ever seen in the town.

"I've never known it rain like this is in a short space of time, he said.

"It's unprecedented in my time. I have to say we've had floods and rain like this before but never had anything like this in so many parts of the district.

"It shows you that floods can get localised. There will be contingency plans in place which are coordinated through the county council and our district officers.

"There are officers designated to deal with issues when people get flooded and incidents like this happen. They can call on various organisations and machinery to deal with it but I hope it isn't that bad and the water levels resume quickly.

"I hope nobody is hurt or seriously injured in any of the flooding."

Two cars were recovered by firefighters under the railway bridge on the A5 near to the Orbital Retail park – after the vehicles got stuck in a road full of water.

A spokesperson for Staffordshire Fire and Rescue said: "We attended two incidents in Cannock where vehicles got stuck in the flood water and firefighters had to pull them out. We've had lots of call outs in the Cannock area and have been attending incidents to pump the water away."

The road was seen to be crumbling under the pressure of the torrential downpour on the A460 near McDonalds.

Social media was inundated with people posting pictures of the scenes. Twitter user Scarlett branded the town Cannock-on-the-Water with photographs of cars submerged up to bonnet level. The roundabouts near the Orbital were also branded a no-go area in the early evening after two collisions added to the disruption.

The area near Mill Farm on Lichfield Road was also labelled 'horrendous' by Jacqueline Hayden on Twitter.

Train services between Hednesford and Rugeley were also suspended due to the line being flooded.

West Midlands Ambulance Service tweeted: "Deja vu anyone?

"Significant rainfall and localised flooding in Cannock. Please take care if you are in the area."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Trio strike gold with lottery win

THREE Cheslyn Hay residents have struck it lucky in the People's Postcode Lottery. The four-figure cash sum went to the householders in Tudor Close, WS6 7DQ, as a daily prize winner last Wednesday.

The prize is worth £1,000, but, as one of the players had two tickets, they double their winnings. Five postcodes are guaranteed to win every day in the People's Postcode Lottery. A minimum of 30 per cent goes directly to charities and players have raised £124.1 million for good causes. Visit www.postcodelottery.co.uk

County population to rise by 65,000

THE population of Staffordshire is due to increase by some 65,000 in the next 25 years, new figures reveal.

Currently the population of the county is 860,000 according to the Office for National Statistics, but this is due to rise to 925,000 in 2039.

The rise represents an increase of around 7.5 per cent.

Cannock Chase is due to rise from 99,000 to 105,000 with South Staffordshire rising from 111,000 to 118,000.

Stafford is predicted to go from 132,000 to 144,000. Current population figures are taken from 2014.

Tools are taken in greenhouse raid

GARDENING equipment was stolen from a property near Cannock.

Police are appealing after a strimmer and a hedge cutter were taken from a greenhouse at the rear of the property in Cannock Wood Street, Hazel Slade sometime between Monday June 6 and Tuesday June 7.

Police are urging people to ensure any outbuildings are secure. Anyone with any information is asked to contact Staffordshire Police on 101 quoting incident number 725 of June 7.

Stuck horses pulled clear from trench

TWO horses were rescued after being stuck in a trench for more than two hours on Cannock Chase.

Specialist animal rescue crews attended Cannock Chase Trekking Centre, at Pottal Pool, to rescue the animals after they ended up in a 4ft ditch last Tuesday night, June 7.

Staffordshire Fire and Rescue first attended the incident at 7.50pm.

A mechanical and manual digger was used to extract the two animals and both of the horses were released at 9.20pm.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

WEIRDEST sight so far, in an isolated corner of a parish cemetery in Devon, was a pile of rubble topped with half a human skull. Grave robbing? Black-magic rituals? The only explanations that don't make the flesh creep are landslip and badgers.

"IT is morally vital that there is no increase in the number of animals that suffer at human hands," opined one radio pundit in a debate on growing human transplant organs in pigs. In other words, if we use one pig for spare parts, we must ensure another pig is not slaughtered for pies. Careers for the 21st century: ethical pig counter.

RESEARCH by Radio 2 suggested the Queen loves to sing and is word-perfect with the songs of George Formby. Now I am unable to get rid of the mental image of Her Majesty as a young mother, soaping her children on bath night while adopting a daft Lancashire accent and belting out: "When I'm cleaning Windsors."

OUR changing language. A reader reports that his manager regularly issues memos with the instruction: "Cascade this down to all colleagues." I am delighted to maelstrom this tit-bit to my readers.

GREAT philosophers of our time. "Life itself is pretty amazing. The fact that it just changes all the time – that kind of amazes me." Sir Paul McCartney, interviewed in the Mail on Sunday.

I SAW Muhammad Ali in the 1980s when he visited Birmingham. Even then, before his Parkinson's was diagnosed, he was a slow, shambling echo of the beautiful boxer who once floated like a butterfly – a victim, possibly, of too many punches. I never expected him to live so long. In contrast, Henry Cooper, whom I interviewed in his 70s, miraculously avoided brain damage and remained a great raconteur and an imposing figure almost to the end. What especially impressed me about Cooper was that he knew I understood virtually nothing about boxing and pitched his chat accordingly with great charm, as though we were lifelong friends. A gentleman.

ANOTHER of your suggestions for a term to describe those days when it's colder in the house than it is outside. A reader suggests it's a baked Alaska day.

SLOBBY Britain. A reader stopping overnight at a hotel near London was depressed rather than surprised to find a mother and her offspring queuing among other guests at the breakfast buffet, still wearing pyjamas. Any similar sightings?

Van driver sentenced over rider's death

A CHESLYN Hay van driver has been handed a suspended sentence for killing a cyclist on the A5 in Staffordshire.

Dean Swift claimed a gust of wind had blown his vehicle into the path of Paul Maguire. He was found guilty at an earlier hearing of causing death by careless driving and was last week sentenced to six months in prison, suspended for 24 months. He was also disqualified from driving for 12 months and ordered to pay £2,000 in costs.

A jury at Stafford Crown Court heard that on 5 May last year Mr Maguire was taking part in a charity bike ride from Basingstoke to Kendal and his route took him along the A5 in Tamworth heading towards Lichfield. Heading in the same direction was 23-year-old Swift, driving a Ford Transit van. A motorist in front of the defendant spotted the cyclist and manoeuvred safely around him. However, Swift collided with him. Despite the attention of emergency services, Mr Maguire died by the roadside.

Swift was arrested and claimed a gust of wind had forced his vehicle into the path of the cyclist. Andy Gee, Senior Crown Prosecutor from West Midlands Crown Prosecution Service, said: "Dean Swift would have had a clear sight of the road ahead of him and he would have had ample time to spot Paul Maguire.

" However, he failed to safely pass the victim and his van collided with the victim.

"The defendant's driving fell below that expected of a competent and careful driver."

Power station closes early as coal runs out

By Jack Averty

RUGELEY Power Station has run out of coal, and has closed weeks earlier than expected.

The power station is no longer producing electricity and is disconnected from the National Grid.

French owners of the site Engie had previously announced that the site would close at the end of June, but this was brought forward by a couple of weeks after the site ran out of coal to burn after it stopped taking deliveries some time ago.

A total of 120 jobs are due to go this month, with 30 set to stay on at the plant for a further nine months as part of the decommissioning process.

The station's towers have dominated Rugeley's skyline for decades.

Councillor Gordon Alcott, deputy leader of Cannock Chase Council, described the closure as a 'bitter disappointment'.

But he said the decommissioning process for the plant would be done in a 'proper way'.

Stopped

He said: "It had a stock of coal that it had to use up.

"They have ran that down, and they stopped producing for the National Grid.

"It is a bitter disappointment to us. Some time ago it was on the cards because of government pollution plans.

"It is also sad for all of those people that are working there," Councillor Alcott added.

"It is not only the people working at the power station but it is the suppliers as well who it will affect.

"There has been a working group meeting regularly to make sure the circumstances for job loses and the decommissioning of the plant is done in a proper way, which I can assure you it will be."

It is believed that the site will take at least five years to redevelop.

Demolition and decontamination work is likely to take three years alone.

Full of colour over winning design

Alicia Wilkins, of Great Wyrley, and her winning design on the National Express coach

A GREAT Wyrley schoolgirl has won a regional painting competition and her design can now be seen by hundreds of road users.

Eight-year-old Alicia Wilkins' drawing of her ideal holiday was chosen as the winner from hundreds of other entries from the West Midlands in the 2015 Colour the Coach competition.

Children aged 5-15 from all over the country were asked to draw a picture of their ideal holiday.

Professional artist Paul Parkin, whose gallery 'Jinx Art' is based in Birmingham, selected Alicia's design as the winning West Midlands entry. She won a £50 cheque while her drawing was transformed into a one-off livery on a National Express coach. The coach operator also took the coach bearing Alicia's picture to her school, Landywood Primary, for the whole school to admire.

Alicia said: "I'm so excited that my picture won and that my schoolmates got to see my design on the coach. I love drawing and I love holidays – so this competition was perfect for me!"

Headteacher Andrew Clewer said: "I'm delighted that Alicia's excellent picture won and the whole school was thrilled to see it rolling into the playground on a National Express coach."

National Express UK Coach Managing Director Tom Stables said: "We had a fantastic array of entries from children in the West Midlands and Alicia's design was particularly brilliant."

MP in plea to address village lack of identity

CANNOCK Chase MP Amanda Milling is calling for Royal Mail to ring the changes, by recognising Brereton in the postal address system.

Following calls by Brereton & Ravenhill Parish Council and local residents to keep Brereton's identity alive, Ms Milling has written to Royal Mail asking for the village name to become part of the official postal address for all homes.

Royal Mail, which controls the postal address system, only lists 47 properties in the parish with Brereton in the address, despite there being more than 1,000 houses in the village. Currently many of Brereton's addresses state only Rugeley.

The Conservative MP said: "Brereton has a strong identity and is naturally very proud of this. Many residents are concerned that Brereton's identity is being lost.

"As a resident of Brereton myself, I am very happy to support the campaign to keep its identity alive and I have asked Royal Mail to recognise Brereton in the postal system."

Parish council chairman Councillor Paul Fisher said: "I am delighted that our MP and Royal Mail are listening to our request that the name Brereton is put back into the address system.

"Clearly the good people of Brereton are passionate about our village having felt a loss of identity when the name was taken out of the address. Brereton is mentioned in the Domesday Book and the people of our community are extremely proud of the village."

School embarks on trip of a lifetime

PUPILS and staff from a Rugeley school will undertake a once in a lifetime trip to Cambodia next summer.

It is hoped 22 students and two members of staff from the Rugeley Academies will work on community projects, including helping with a school building.

Other visits will take in the Killing Fields and the Angkor Wat Temple.

Academies Principal Chris Keen said: "An experience like this for our students helps them to understand the rich diversity of a new country, develop their skills in communication, teamwork and leadership, and offers them personal development opportunities to enhance their CVs as they leave sixth form and move into the wider world of either work or higher education."

Singers in tune for concert at church

CANNOCK Ex-Servicemen's Male Voice Choir are to perform at St Paul's Methodist/United Reformed Church in Rugeley on Saturday at 7pm.

Admission is £5 on the door, to include light refreshments. All are welcome. For details call 01889 586875.

Teams win a season's reprieve on pitches

SPORTS teams that had been set to be booted off pitches at Shugborough Estate will be allowed to stay for an extra season.

The National Trust will take over the running of the site from November, after Staffordshire County Council confirmed it was to surrender its lease 49 years early.

Originally, the charity informed Great Haywood Football Club, Berkswich Football Club and Milford Cricket Club that they would be stopped from using the Grade I listed parkland immediately.

But the trust has now given the teams a stay of execution until May 2017.

Ben Shipston, assistant director of operations for the National Trust, said: "We have listened to the local community, and have reached a compromise whereby the local football and cricket teams can continue to use Shugborough next season.

"This extension gives the teams the extra time they need to find a new location, rather than having to leave them homeless."

Reacting to the trust's change of heart, Councillor Andy Cooper, from Colwich Parish Council, said: "Colwich Parish Council and our local teams heard about the changes rather late in the process, which wasn't giving the team time to find a new home ground in time to register for the next season.

"This gave the prospect of them having to fold after over 40 years of existence."

Money and tools taken by thieves

THIEVES stole money from a house in Burntwood. The house on Willet Avenue was broken into between 11pm on June 3 and 5.30am the following day.

The offenders entered via the back of the premises, forced open a window and clambered through into the kitchen.

In a separate burglary in the same road, a shed was broken into on the Friday night and tools were stolen.

Anyone with any information is asked to call Staffordshire Police on 101 and quote incident number 189 or 303 of June 4.

Neighbours are warned to be on their guard, secure their properties at all times and to report any suspicious activity to police immediately.

Academy ready to hold summer fair

PYE Green Academy in Rose Hill, Hednesford, is holding a summer fair on Saturday.

The event, which runs from midday to 3pm, will feature stalls, games, ice cream, cakes and a bouncy castle.

Minted! Rare coins fetch £33,000

The 1656 Cromwellian coin

A COLLECTION of rare coins dating from the reign of Oliver Cromwell and his adversary King Charles II have gone under the hammer in Penkridge and sold for a total of £33,000.

The coins, a 1656 gold broad of 20 shillings dating from the Cromwellian period and the Charles II 1662 gold board of 20 shillings were expected to reach between £3,000 and £12,000 respectively, but sold at Cuttlestons Auctioneers in Pinfold Lane for £22,000 and £11,000.

Coin collectors and Civil War buffs were out in force on the day of the sale – both in the auction room and placing offer via telephone and via live internet bidding.

Head auctioneer and managing director of Cuttlestones, Ben Gamble, said: "The prices realised by these coins surprised everyone – including the telephone bidders, who were out in force.

"However, they were very rare items in exceptional condition and we had huge interest in both lots before the sale.

"The Cromwellian coin in particular is a very special example – not only due to the short period of Cromwell's reign but that it was one of the very first coins made using the modern minting method rather than being struck by hand, so it really got the enthusiasts in a spin.

"This, and the subsequent price achieved by the less rare Charles II coin, just shows how a bidding war can develop and send prices well beyond expectations," he added.

Both historic coins sold to a London-based bidder, who had travelled to the Midlands to attend the sale in person.

Stalker, 30, is banned from entering capital

A RUGELEY man who stalked a yoga teacher he was obsessed with has been banned by a court from entering London and given a suspended jail sentence.

Birmingham University engineering student Krystian Czekaj, 30, of Ashton Road, 'scared' the young woman when he suddenly appeared at her new workplace, a court was told.

Czekaj pleaded guilty to stalking Emily Lacy, knowing that what he was doing amounted to harassment.

The court was told that he turned up outside Sangye Yoga in north Kensington, on May 6 and that this action was the final straw for Miss Lacy, who called the police.

He was sentenced to eight weeks' prison suspended for two years and ordered to complete a 25-day rehabilitation activity requirement, and ordered to pay £200 costs.

Mr Kunal Dave, prosecuting, told Hammersmith Magistrates Court that Czekaj began taking yoga classes in Birmingham and asked Miss Lacy out for a cup of tea.

Telephone

She rejected his requests and he subsequently followed her and a friend to a restaurant, where he stared at them through the windows. He also sent her flowers, cards and a teddy bear.

Mr Dave said: "He sent her letters professing his love for her and would telephone her work looking for her and also sent flowers, cards and a teddy bear."

She reported him to police while in Birmingham, and the harassment stopped. But the court was told it began again after her move to London.

Mr Rodney Coleman, defending, said: "He's an intelligent person, but Miss Lacy did not want a relationship with him.

He has now said 'If I am released I won't contact her'."

In her victim impact statement Ms Lacy said: "This is not normal behaviour, it is weird. I wish he would never contact me or come near me again. Magistrate Henry McGrill told Czekaj: " We're going to give you a chance to prove what you must and must not do."

A condition of the sentence was that Czekaj cannot cross the M25 for two years, and he was made the subject of an indefinite restraining order.

Queen's honours for local heroes

Jennifer Morgan from Norton Canes with Roo the hand reared Emu, and Emily

UNSUNG heroes from Staffordshire and the Black Country were rewarded in the Queen's Birthday Honours.

Among them was Norton Canes woman Jennifer Morgan, aged 34, who has helped nurse hundreds of abandoned animals back to full health. She was awarded the British Empire Medal (BEM) for services to wildlife rescue, rehabilitation and conservation.

Since becoming director of Gentleshaw Wildlife Centre in 2003 she has looked after hundreds of abandoned exotic animals and rehabilitated more than 400 birds of prey into the wild from the centre, which was set up by her late father Rob Smith in 1993.

Her citation says she works 'with huge commitment and passion, and is without doubt the driving force behind the centre and its aims'. She said: "It was definitely a surprise. At first I thought it was a hoax but then my husband pointed out it was actually a very important letter."

The leader of Staffordshire County Council,Philip Atkins, aged 64, was awarded an OBE for services to local government.

The MBE was awarded to Tony Clough, 38, of Lichfield, for services to disabled people, and Rev Monica Newsome, 60, former prison chaplain of Stoke Heath and Swinfen Hall.

Not voting is really not about some being lazy

FORMER Walsall Council leader Mike Bird hit out at the low turnout at last month's local elections, accusing the 70-odd per cent who did not turn out of being idle.

"There is no excuse not to vote, it is just laziness," he said. "These people will then complain at the decisions made by the administrations but I am sorry that is not how it works if you can't be bothered to get off your backside."

Two points. First of all, many of these people are not lazy, just busy.

As a self-made businessman Councillor Bird should realise that not everybody works a 37-hour week.

These days many people travel a long way to work, leaving the house before the polling station opens and returning after it shuts.

Some might have other things going on in their lives, such as caring for sick or elderly relatives. Under these circumstances, local politics is probably not high on the list of priorities.

But more importantly, true democracy, it is not just about having the right to vote, but also the right to not to. Yes, some people will say you should register your abstention by driving down to the polling station and spoiling your paper, but frankly I grew out of that sort of gesture politics in my 20s.

Maybe some people are lazy. And it is perhaps unfortunate that hard-working local councillors such as Councillor Bird are tainted with the indifference that many feel towards the political leaders at Westminster.

But if you do really want to get people to take an interest in your work, and encourage them to participate in democracy, branding them as idle is probably not the best way to go about it.

❐❐❐

IMAGINE you were still sitting on the fence about the EU referendum. You have read all the scare stories, you have heard all the bizarre stats, and sat through hours of boring debates. And after all that, you're still on the fence.

Then, like a pair of ageing rockers announcing the start of their nostalgia tour, Tony Blair and John Major take to the stage urging us to vote Remain. Yep, me too.

❐❐❐

INCIDENTALLY, why all the fuss about the voter registration website crashing just before the deadline for the EU referendum?

It goes without saying that if you urge thousands of people to log onto a website it will crash. They always do.

But unless I have misunderstood the process completely, it is a legal requirement to be correctly listed on the electoral role.

If people can't be bothered to comply with the law for the rest of the year, can they really complain if they miss out?

Old pictures of Market Street feature in the book

"I have written this book to make sure that the history of Hednesford is not lost forever."

Author Anthony Hunt has released his eighth book, 20th Century Hednesford.

Mr Hunt, a former English and history teacher who has taken to writing local history books since retirement, says he hopes his latest work will give a unique insight into the town's past to people old and young.

The book, written in diary format, chronicles changes in the town's architecture, nature and people from 1900 to 2000 with an entry for each year.

Mr Hunt said: "This one needed a particularly high level of research because of the sheer scale of the period I wanted to cover.

"It took me around three years to get it together and I am very proud of the results.

A former teacher has written a diary-style book recording the changing face of Hednesford. JORDAN HARRIS reports

I have written it to make sure the history of Hednesford is not lost forever.

"A lot of old buildings are gone now and as far as I can see, there is no clear record of the 20th Century, where so much was changed."

As well as being a record of changes the 20th Century brought to the town, Mr Hunt hopes the book can be a starting point for people to do their own research on particular topics.

He said: "There is so much to cover in this book that I haven't gone into huge detail on everything, but I hope maybe other people can pick it up and take off from there. It is usually the older generation who buy these kind of books but I do get younger people buying them when they have just moved to the town and want to find out more about it.

"I hope it starts a discussion in the area about the changes that happened in the 20th century, there is still so much more to know."

Neighbours

Aspects of the town that Mr Hunt believes have been lost over the years include industry and community spirit.

He said: "Putting something together like this, you realise just how much used to go on in Hednesford.

"The mining industry we had here is gone, so are the racing stables.

"We have had four Grand National winning horses brought up here and that unfortunately won't happen again. It does feel like it is becoming a dormitory town, where people have to leave to find work, which is a shame.

"There is also a change in the community. When I was younger, I knew everyone in my street, I wasn't being nosy, that was just how it was.

"These days I only really know my close neighbours and that is the same for a lot of people."

Mr Hunt, who says he is always thinking of ideas for his next book while completing his current projects, said he is now looking to put together a book chronicling murders in Hednesford and Cannock.

To purchase 20th Century Hednesford for £11.99, visit WH Smiths in Cannock and Lichfield, Katie's Kards in Hednesford, News and Booze in Hednesford and local post offices in Hazel Slade and Heath Hayes.

Winner Matt sits on the Iron throne

Matt Trautman fended off competition from more than 2,000 triathletes to win Staffordshire Ironman 70

MATT Trautman fended off competition from more than 2,000 triathletes to be crowned the champion of Staffordshire Ironman 70 but there was no sign of Gordon Ramsay or Kirsty Gallacher at the county's premier sporting event.

TV presenter Gallacher pulled out at the last minute because of injury while celebrity chef Ramsay, who was due to attend as a spectator after rupturing his Achilles' tendon, also failed to show after having to have his plaster recast.

But despite the lack of celebrity sightings and torrential rain, the event was hailed as 'fantastic' by the county council's economic boss Councillor Mark Winnington.

He said: "It was great to see so many people come out to support the athletes despite the wet weather."

South African Trautman was not the only winner on the day as reformed alcoholic Paul Startin also completed the event, eight years on from when he used to drink 100 pints a week. The 27-year-old, who lives in Penkridge, was not the only special story on the day as another finisher, 43-year-old mother-of-three Susan Medley, celebrated the 10th anniversary of her surviving a brain haemorrhage by tackling the event. She said: "It feels so good to be alive."

It was a good day for the Brits with Harry Wiltshire coming second and Lucy Gossage winning the women's race.

Care home is ordered to improve once more

A CARE home in Burntwood has again been ordered to improve after 'failing to protect the rights' of its residents.

The Care Quality Commission gave Southwinds, in Chase Road, a 'requires improvement' rating following an inspection in December. It had previously issued a warning following an inspection in August.

Then, the home was found to be breaching regulations that state 'care and treatment of service users' must only be provided with their consent.

Inspectors found two residents had been listed by a doctor as being unable to consent to decisions about their care, despite relevant mental health assessments not being completed.

Decide

The home, which provides accommodation for up to 25 people with learning disabilities, has not properly acted on the advice given by the CQC with regards to the warning, the latest report reveals.

The assessments allow operators to decide whether a resident is able to make their own decisions and the law stipulates they must be completed to protect people's rights.

The care home was given three inadequate ratings between 2014 and 2015.

In the latest inspection, the home was deemed to be in need of improvement in terms of effectiveness and leadership. Inspectors had also previously asked for improvements to be made relating to the ongoing monitoring of the quality of care provided at the home.

By Jordan Harris

It was found that an audit service had been set up since but no assessments had been carried out.

The report reads: "At this inspection we saw an audit process had been set up but at the time of our inspection no audits or trend analysis had been undertaken.

"There were no audits in place to monitor the quality of the service or incident trends to identify where improvements could be made.

"This meant the registered manager was not monitoring the quality of the service to identify where improvements could be made."

The report also states that people were not given a choice over their meals, although the CQC admits that the food offered to residents was 'varied and nutritious'.

Care home bosses were unavailable for comment.

Failure to recognise mishaps

COUNCILLOR P Witton's letter (Chronicle, June 2), is filled with inconsistencies. His failure to recognise Labour's mishaps throughout its 13 years in government nationally and locally are frankly dishonest.

Labour sold off more social housing than Thatcher ever dared, and only built 7,870 social housing nationally in that period.

Could Councillor Witton tell his constituents how much social housing his council built and sold over that same period of time?

This was a time we had a crisis in the NHS and social services. And then he goes on about education. Under Labour's tenure we were languishing towards the bottom of the world tables on education, we have now improved dramatically.

I understand your frustration of being in opposition but please realise your own record was, in my opinion, abysmal.

Lessons to be learned from power station

HOW sad it is for Rugeley Power Station – a major employer in the area – to have to close, with the loss of jobs, income and taxes which support our civil authorities. I am sure the Government will continue to turn a blind eye to the destruction of our society.

It is even sadder to realise that this is a result of handing over our national utilities to organisations outside the UK by various governments over recent decades.

It is common for power generation in France to be nuclear, the fuel for which is very toxic for thousands of years, even when the plants are finally closed.

There is enough coal left in this country for another 300 years, without importing nuclear, oil, gas or even coal from outside our shores.

Wind power, solar and water power, can help but it can never be as reliable as our coal-fired systems, and I am sure we can look forward to power cuts in the winter, just as we had in the 1940s when I was a child. This closure demonstrates to me just how ineffective the EU is when it comes to protecting jobs and facilities in this country.

The Europeans are not really interested in us as members of the EU, apart from our funding of unelected bureaucrats in Brussels and Strasbourg.

We need to take control of our own destiny as we did before for generations.

MICHAEL FAWDREY

Little being done to help abuse victims

IT'S great to hear police are taking domestic abuse more seriously. Unfortunately this is not the case for follow-up work. Once the police have dealt with the issue it is then down to organisations like a women's refuge or Victim Support to help the abused with issues that surround it, including re-housing, counselling and any financial matters.

First, women's refuges in some parts of the country have closed and those in Stafford and Birmingham have had their funding cut. Victim Support are now referring some cases to Citizens Advice, who are in turn losing funding from Cannock Council.

In addition, Staffordshire is making qualified specialists redundant because of cutbacks. So although Staffordshire Police and the local authorities say domestic abuse is being tackled, this is only the crime stage. Little is being done behind the scenes to help the victims.

Listen to young ones

STILL undecided on the EU? Look at the opinion polls: the younger you are, the more likely you are to want to remain, and, apparently, that is the case with most under 25s.

The future of our young people is at stake and this is a decision which will affect the UK for decades. If young people want to stay in and benefit from the opportunities and freedoms the EU offers, perhaps we should listen to them.

Ferocity with compassion

IT was with sadness I heard of the death of Muhammad Ali, for to me he was a very special person.

He brought both ferocity in the ring and compassion out of it. He was the same in the presence of presidents as with the man on the street.

It was Ali's early career that gave me an avid interest in boxing.

Although I never boxed myself, I admire any man who can step in a ring to box. RIP Ali.

Loneliness is a horrible feeling

I WOULD like to say how much I agree with Mrs Susan Mason's letter about loneliness (June 2).

I think we're turning into a don't-care society.

I know how loneliness feels, and it's horrible, but others can't see it. How long would it take to show people you care? We are British – come on, show it.

Just two hours could make real difference

WITH less than half of people in the UK volunteering formally, I am calling on readers to support Mind's shop at Burntwood Shopping Precinct by giving just a couple of hours twice a week.

Our shop relies on volunteers to raise money for the mental health charity. People of Burntwood can help us by volunteering to sort stock, create displays and talk to customers. No prior experience is necessary, and just two hours of your time would make all the difference.

I urge readers to pop in and find out more about how they can support us.

With community support we will be able to raise vital funds for the charity's work.

I'm trying not to lose my head over this hysteria

THE mass hysteria involved in the Queen's 90th birthday celebrations borders on a collective insanity: an unelected leader of state justified by a non-existent deity.

The monarchy is a symbol of opulence and greed and has no place in the 21st Century. They are an obscenely expensive anachronism.

Monarchy-generated tourism? Even Stonehenge attracts millions of tourists, despite the Pagan gods being long consigned to the scrapheap of history.

"Off with my head," I can hear the royalists cry. All I can say is "God save the Queen", whoever God is.

Father's 66-mile trek to aid children's wards

A PROUD Rugeley father is trekking more than 66 miles between two hospitals to raise money for their children's wards.

John Clasper will walk from Stoke-on-Trent to Birmingham after his 16-month-old daughter Sofia was diagnosed with cancer.

Sofia, was diagnosed with stage four neuroblastoma around a month ago and is currently undergoing chemotherapy sessions.

Mr Clasper will be joined by his brother Gavin and niece Amber for the walk. It will start on July 31 with 16 hours of non-stop walking and finish the next day. Mr Clasper said: "Sofia was diagnosed about three weeks ago at the beginning of May.

"She's having chemotherapy at the moment but the service we've had from hospitals has been top notch.

"The treatment has made a slight difference so far but only time will tell how effective the blocks of chemotherapy are," he said.

He added: "It's all about giving something back to them. I haven't done anything like this before but I'm really looking forward to it. Sofia has absolutely amazed us all – the whole of her family.

"Every single day of the week she's still got a big smile on her face even after having chemotherapy which is why we're doing this challenge really."

The group is planning to take the A34 route through Stafford, Cannock and beyond until they eventually get to the second city.

Mr Clasper has set up a Just Giving page to raise funds for the hospitals and is in the process of organising sponsorship forms.

To donate, call him on 07982 639 970 for more details.

Reward for 'dignity' role

A WOMAN from Great Wyrley has been rewarded for her commitment and hard work in the care sector after she was named in the Queen's New Year Honour's List.

Jan Burns MBE, aged 65, and chair of the National Dignity Council, has been presented with her MBE for her services to promotion of dignity in care for all.

She attended a ceremony at Buckingham Palace on Thursday when she was honoured by the Prince of Wales. Jan started working with the local community in 1980 for meals on wheels and has since gone on to work as a care worker, qualified social worker and set up her non-for-profit company Safe and Settled.

The National Dignity Council became a registered charity in February this year.

Speaking after receiving her award, she said: "On a voluntary basis my job is to incite people to become champions and promote dignity.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done.

We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Wolverhampton and the surrounding area and Brian is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Tom Bomb in a spectacular show

Tom Jones during Sunday's show at Beacon Park in Lichfield, where he paid an emotional tribute to his late wife

SIR Tom Jones OBE gave an emotional performance in Lichfield when he dedicated a song to his late wife live on stage, writes Jessica Labhart.

The much-loved Welsh singer/songwriter took to the stage at Beacon Park on Sunday, wooing the crowd with his repertoire of classic hits such as It's Not Unusual, Kiss, Delilah, Sex Bomb, What's New Pussycat and Green Green Grass Of Home.

The performer, who boasts a career spanning more than five decades, dedicated the new ballad entitled Tomorrow Night to his late wife Lady Melinda Rose Woodward, known as Linda, who sadly passed away from cancer in a Los Angeles hospital on April 10 this year.

Speaking on stage at the concert, Sir Tom said: "Ladies and gentleman, whenever I recorded an album I used to take them home and play them to my wife first.

"She would always tell me what her favourite song was.

"In this latest album, Long Lost Suitcase, there's a ballad on there and it goes like this."

An eight-piece band including trumpet and tuba players also joined the superstar to deliver an impressive burst of jazz to classic Mama Told Me Not to Come, with lighting special effects and videography adding to the gravelly vocals of Sir Tom in Didn't it Rain.

The concert was praised by local councillors and business owners for bringing a much needed boost to Lichfield's tourist trade, with visitors believed to have spent up to £700,000.

For Sir Tom, however, this gig seemed to be much more symbolic.

As the rain held off for his energetic rendition of Raise A Ruckus, the 76-year-old megastar reminded us why he remains such a stalwart of popular music and a true national treasure.

Humorous insight into retirement

Hednesford A TWG

DAVID Berry was welcomed to the May meeting for a humorous look at retirement. The talk was thoroughly enjoyed and it is hoped the guild's donation will help with the good work done at Mary Stevens Hospice in Stourbridge.

At the June meeting, members will be celebrating the Queen's Birthday, dressed in red, white and blue with home made hats. Even the sales table will be donned in red, white and blue. A cream tea will follow.

The Luncheon Club met at The Spread Eagle and the nine ladies had a good 'chin wag' during their carvery meal. At Dobbies Garden Centre afterwards several ladies bought bedding plants and garden produce. The June Luncheon Club will meet at The Lock House at Great Haywood.

Cannock were thanked on behalf the eight members who attended, for the invitation to the 45th birthday celebration. Sheila Baker, Trustee from National headquarters, honoured the ladies with her attendance.

Hednesford member Chris Eccleshall and her husband Adam sang medieval songs at the Staffordshire Day celebrating 1,000 years of the county at the Museum of Cannock Chase. Eight ladies ventured to Eastbourne and stayed at the Queens Hotel and had a fun filled five-day good time holiday.

At the end of June eight of our members are representing Hednesford at the AGM in Bournemouth.

Ridwares WI

THE April meeting had an interesting talk and picture presentation by Roger Hailwood, a guide from The National Memorial Arboretum.

The site at Alrewas was a restored gravel pit which now has 40,000 trees which are important growing memoriams. Many of the trees and plants have a special connection to those remembered.

The competition was a photo/picture/drawing of a tree, won by Brenda Grimley.

Outings are being planned to Uttoxeter Races Ladies' Day, Arley Hall and a skittles evening. A very successful Ridwares 68th birthday party was held at Mabel's at Curborough where everyone enjoyed fine dining and entertainment from Kate's Party.

A St George's Day Tea was combined with a celebration for the Queen's 90th birthday. Afternoon tea was served to 98 happy partygoers who sang their hearts out when the pianist struck up Rule Britannia and Land of Hope and Glory among others.

The hall was decorated with bunting and there was a great deal of patriotic flag waving. The next event will be a vintage tea and fashion show on June 16.

Behind scenes at Shugborough

Landor Society

EIGHTEEN members were welcomed by Chris Copp and Melanie Williamson, from the Museum Service at Shugborough, on the first of the summer outings. The visit was a 'behind the scenes' look at items held on site by the service.

Half of the visit concentrated on items on display in the galleries. In one room there was displayed a Regency style dress worn by one of the Landor family.

The Victorian classroom bought back memories as even in the 1950s this type of furniture was still in use. There was a gallery devoted to shoemaking, a trade of Stafford. Following this was a walk through the storerooms where artefacts are kept from floor to ceiling on racks.

Chris then took members to the room where the collections of old photographs are catalogued and carefully stored, some being transferred to the Staffordshire Past Track website.

Canal trust celebrates esteemed engineer

THE spirit of the 18th Century was recreated in a celebration of the 300th anniversary of the birth of James Brindley.

Staffordshire-born Brindley, a leading engineer of his day, had a vision of a Lichfield canal from Minster Pool to the River Trent which would have made the city the hub of a national transport network.

His project got as far as surveying the route, estimating the costs and issuing a notice in December 1759 proposing to apply for an Act of Parliament to give assent for the canal. But a lack of backing led to the abandonment of the section of the canal into Minster Pool.

Volunteers of Lichfield and Hatherton Canals Restoration Trust, dressed in period costume, accompanied an oration at Minster Pool's Speakers Corner, by Peter Buck, the trust's engineering director.

Mr Buck explained how Brindley developed his vision for an extensive canal network across the nation, and how others took up the baton in building and improving canals. In 1797 the Wyrley & Essington Canal extension from Brownhills to Huddlesford opened, allowing the transport of coal, grain, manure and lime.

By Simon Stone

The W&E Canal continued to serve Lichfield well up to the Second World War when pressures from rail and road transport resulted in a decline in the commercial use of canals; 1954 saw the abandonment of the W&E but 30 years later, as canals were being increasingly used for pleasure, thoughts turned to restoring the Lichfield and Hatherton canals and the LHCRT was formed in 1986.

The trust has overcome many obstacles, including the M6 Toll which required an aqueduct over the motorway, but the work of the volunteers is bringing closer the day when narrowboats will again travel from Ogley Junction to Huddlesford.

Niall's endeavours earn him top award

Niall Toolan receives his award from outgoing Cannock Chase Council chairman Councillor Maureen Freeman

A STUDENT from Kingsmead Technology College has been awarded Cannock Chase Council's Youth Endeavour Award. Niall Toolan, aged 15, was nominated by his Head of House Amanda Evans in recognition of his achievements in and out of school.

As a prefect, Niall is expected to act as a role model for other students. He is Wimblebury House Charity Ambassador, where he co-ordinates the work of house representatives. Out of school, Niall has completed the Three Peaks challenge for Go Commando. Niall is also a Young Leader for the Scouts and a St John Ambulance first aider.

He attends martial art classes three times a week and spends free weekends training to compete in triathlons.

Amanda Evans said: "I believe Niall is an excellent example of a student who channels his energy into making life better for others."

The Youth Endeavour Award is given to a young person aged from 11-to-18, who lives in the Cannock Chase district and has made an outstanding contribution to the community, shown great bravery, or helped others in some way.

Healthy lifestyle event has that feelgood factor

AROUND 50 women enjoyed tips on how to look good and feel good in an event run by Cannock Soroptimists.

The visitors enjoyed talking to stallholders from various organisations connected with female health with the aim of helping women feel better about themselves.

Soroptimist president Carole Holdcroft welcomed the likes of SI Midland Chase Region President Alyson Green and Amanda Milling, MP for Cannock Chase to the event, at Calf Heath Village Hall. Thanks were also given to Cannock Lions for sponsoring the event.

Speakers included Soroptimist Kate Young, Kathy Coe. founder of the Pathway Project for domestic violence victims and Alison Jackson of the worldwide charity for cancer patients Look Good Feel Better. She told of free beauty workshops provided at local hospitals.

Fiona Ford, who founded Fresh Hair, a bespoke wig fitting service for cancer patients and a past winner of SI Midland Chase Inspirational Woman competition, and nutrition adviser Vicky Farmer, also gave presentations, while visitors had the chance to talk to a colour analyst, nail technician, breast care specialist, podiatrist and staff from St Giles Hospice.

There was a free prize draw and one lucky woman won a basket packed with pamper goodies.

A club spokesman said: "An added bonus for Cannock Soroptimists is that a number of the ladies are keen to come along to a meeting and find out more about the club and the organisation."

Palace date for charity volunteers

CESS chairman Dave Hancock and founder Kitty Leech at Buckingham Palace

TWO members of a Rugeley-based charity group collected its Queen's Award for Voluntary Services at Buckingham Palace. Registered Community Engagement Support Services (CESS) offers a wide range of services and resources to help people in Rugeley, Brereton and Cannock Chase.

It aims to help to improve the environment and enhance people's quality of life.

Schemes are in place to offer a befriending service and help with gardening to the elderly and vulnerable while a confidential signposting service is also offered. The Queen's Award, the MBE equivalent for voluntary groups, is given for outstanding achievement by groups of volunteers who regularly devote their time to helping others in the community, improving the quality of life and opportunity for others and providing an outstanding service.

Founder member Kitty Leech and chairman Dave Hancock travelled to London top pick up the award.

Anyone wishing to volunteer their services for CESS can call 07957836692, email info@cess.org.uk or find out more at www.cess.org.uk

Celebrate your place in poem

STAFFORDSHIRE'S Poet Laureate Bert Flitcroft wants residents to prove Staffordshire is the creative county.

He is inviting the public to create a 'picture in words' about where they live. He plans to tour the county with a series of workshops, called 'So this is where we live'.

The aim of the project is to collect an anthology of poems, written by locals, about their own special part of Staffordshire. The Staffordshire Poetry Collection will be framed and hung in the Shire Hall Gallery in Stafford and in libraries across the county.

Bert, who is gathering existing poems for the project, to complement those created in the workshops, said: "Staffordshire is such a diverse county, with no real cultural identity – my idea is that this project might go some way towards creating one. I would like to emphasise that the workshops are creative writing workshops, not purely poetry, and the aim is to encourage anyone, experienced writers or not, to come along and have a go.

Bert, from Fradley, began his role as the county's Poet Laureate in October, with 14-year-old Matilda Houston-Brown named Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent's Young Poet Laureate.

Gill Heath, cabinet member responsible for communities and the environment at the county council, said: "They say a picture is worth a thousand words but equally words can create some vivid pictures.

If anyone has a poem to be considered for the collection, contact either shirehallgallery@staffordshire.gov.uk or www.bert-flitcroft-poetry.com

A Grand achievement! Group clocks up 80 years

IT performs annually at one of the West Midlands' most prominent theatres and Emmerdale baddy Sian Reeves is just one of its famous past members.

South Staffs Musical Theatre Company is celebrating its 80th anniversary.

Formed on May 21, 1936, the group, which currently has around 70 members, is one of the largest amateur theatre groups in the country.

Each autumn the company presents a week-long run of its chosen performance at the Wolverhampton Grand, offering its members the chance to perform in a professional venue – an experience they would not otherwise be able to capitalise on.

It has performed since 1936 despite the Second World War, the closure of the Grand and a variety of other adversities over the years.

South Staffs Musical Theatre Company is celebrating its 80th anniversary

Popular

Its past productions include Rent, The Sound of Music, Oklahoma, and Fiddler on the Roof. Its most recent production was in April with Lift, which the group performed at Tettenhall College in Wolverhampton.

Alison Norton, the group's chair, described their productions as 'as close to professional work as possible'.

She said: "Over the years we have presented popular operettas and musical theatre productions and concerts. Everyone involved in the company is an amateur in their field, although we do strive to present a standard of performance which is as close to professional work as possible.

"There are approximately 70 members, both acting and non-acting, and everyone pulls together for each show to make it very special.

"We have those who appear on stage as well as a very dedicated committee of ten people, including myself as chairperson of the group, a wonderful production team and a variety of helpers who do everything from working back stage to selling programmes. It really is a team effort."

Throughout its 80-year history the group has seen many an actor come and go, but none more famous than Sian Reeves. West Bromwich-born Ms Reeves is most famous for playing the role of Sydney Henshall in the BBC drama Cutting It, and for playing villain Sally Spode in Emmerdale. She is now described as a 'dear friend' of the group. The group's next production will be musical comedy 9 to 5, written by Dolly Parton, at the Grand from October 11 to 15.

Police issue warning over bogus PPI callers

POLICE are urging residents to be on their guard against cold callers following continued reports of bogus incidents.

Officers have received numerous reports of this criminal activity in Cannock and Rugeley, as well as in Stafford, during the past week.

A homeowner in Stafford reported receiving a call just before 3pm on June 3 when the caller congratulated her on being able to receive £2,800 in PPI refunds.

She was instructed to buy iTunes vouchers to that value and someone would ring her back later to get the code from the back of the vouchers. A courier would then call round and give her the money owed in cash and a cheque. She did not give any codes and called the police.

Suspicious

Staffordshire Police also received a call just after 3pm on May 30 from a resident in Rugeley reporting suspicious phone calls. The caller claimed to be from PPI and informed her that she was to receive a £3,834 refund. She was instructed to buy £225 worth of iTunes vouchers and even told where to buy them from locally.

They were ringing back later to obtain the codes before sending a courier round to deliver the money. The woman did not buy any vouchers and contacted the police.

Superintendent Jason O'Toole said: "Please share this advice with friends or relatives who may not have access to our updates, particularly elderly parents, grandparents, friends and neighbours.

"Fraudsters have targeted the Cannock, Stafford and Rugeley areas recently but residents in all areas are warned to be on their guard as they can target any location."

Police are urging people to call them on 101 to report any suspicious calls or if you have any information. To report fraud phone Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040.

Yoga tutor's Eden project

Kelsey Taylor runs the classes at Eden Generation Yoga

A NEW yoga studio catering for all ages has been set up in Cannock – the first of its kind in the area.

Eden Generation Yoga was set up by Kelsey Taylor and held its first class last month.

It focuses on yoga, pilates and meditation-based activities and its timetable includes hatha yoga, over-50s classes, fitness pilates and barre fusion – the new ballet inspired craze – as well as baby ballet and yoga for toddlers and children. A two-week meditation course began on June 10 and baby massage sessions began on June 8. The studio is also keen to keep children occupied during school holidays with yoga sessions.

The studio in Hollies Court, opposite Wickes, includes changing rooms and showers as well as a chill-out space.

Classes are normally £6 but class passes are available at £54 for 10. Using the code CCOFFER online allows for three-for-two.

Fire crews are called to tackle fly-tip blaze

The fire involving wooden doors and other rubbish in Newlands Lane, Heath Hayes

FIREFIGHTERS tackled a blaze on grass land in Cannock after fly-tipped rubbish was set alight.

Crews from Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service and Burntwood Community First Responders were sent to Newlands Lane, Heath Hayes, at 2.15pm on Tuesday last week.

An area of grass land where wooden doors and other rubbish had been dumped was alight at the time, with crews spending more than an hour combating the flames.

Fire service spokesman Fiona Carding said: "Two appliances from Cannock were sent to the scene, as well as a water carrier.

"The first crew arrived at 2.15pm and the last crew left at 3.20. The rubbish was described as being well alight on arrival.

"The fire was on a 10 metre by 10 metre patch of grass land and rubbish."

Burntwood Community First Responders broke news of the fire on Twitter. The group's Twitter account shared the message: "Rubbish dumped on fire in Newlands Lane, Norton Canes. @StaffsFire dealing with Pump & Water Carrier from Cannock."

Feedback on countryside estates on the agenda

COUNCIL bosses were this week discussing feedback from a consultation on the future of countryside estates in Staffordshire.

Staffordshire County Council is in the early stages of looking at ways of making savings from the money spent on maintaining its countryside estate portfolio, including Cannock Chase and Chasewater.

The council has vowed not to sell any of the sites, despite the fact that some land is considered a drain on public resources.

Some 555 people responded to a public consultation, with 70 per cent saying they want to keep things as they are, with the council overseeing the sites.

By Jordan Harris

Better

However, plans are in place to look into potentially running Cannock Chase in partnership with another organisation, as well as looking at letting volunteers run smaller sites.

Councillor Mark Winnington, cabinet member for economic growth, said: "The county council is committed to the principle that the management of our countryside estate delivers better health, economic and social outcomes for our residents.

"These proposals look to build on existing partnerships and an extensive consultation to find ways of managing a diverse estate, maintaining public space for this and future generations, and reducing the burden of that duty to taxpayers.

"All of the comments we received during the consultation have been studied in depth and have been used to develop the recommendations in this paper."

Councillor Winnington said the council's priority was to ensure that country parks are well maintained and would continue to run the sites efficiently for the time being.

He said: "In common with the people of Staffordshire, our priority is to ensure that our country parks are well maintained, accessible and achieve the best results for people and wildlife."

We will undertake all aspects of the installation, including any building work, plastering, plumbing, electrical* and tiling.
Having decided that your kitchen is in need of a revamp you now have to plan what features it will have, sometimes you may not need a complete overhaul sometimes just changing the doors and worktops can completely update the look of your existing kitchen, with over 300 door styles to choose from in our showroom and top brand appliances available Insignia Fitted Kitchen Design is the only local choice that can help you make the best choice for you and your budget.
Simply visiting Insignia Kitchen Design means that you have the pleasure and benefit of creating a kitchen that is designed for and by you, there are many companies in the kitchen industry that offer a similar service but such companies attach it to ranges that consist of an impressive variety of shapes, sizes and colours but are nonetheless far from one off designs. You however, with Insignia Kitchen Planning get a high degree of individuality and flexibility.
Those awkward corners, curved walls and unusual window positions can all be eliminated with the help of our skilled designers.

HEDNESFORD NURSERY

The whole ethos of Hednesford Nursery (we care, we learn, we grow together), is to be a caring and safe place, in which our children can grow physically, emotionally and academically. We strive to support the whole family and to work with the local community, local schools and supporting agencies, to offer the best start to children's learning. The new logo depicts a tree; housing our resident Magpie and Robin, with a trunk emerging from firm curriculum roots and foundations, from which children's handprints grow, blossom and branch out, as they are educated and nurtured. The ring of children around the base symbolises that learning has no beginning and no end and is a cyclical process that continues for us all throughout our whole lives.
We aim to create setting which are welcoming, safe and stimulating, where children are able to enjoy themselves, grow in confidence and fulfil their potential.
The Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) is the guidance for the education and care of children from birth to 5 years. The Early Years Foundation Stage sets the standards that ensure children learn and develop well and are safe and healthy.
If you are interested in a place call in and see us or phone for more information 01543 512225.

PD NURSERIES

There's always something to be doing in the garden, whether it's pruning, tidying or sowing, so we've put together our top gardening tasks for June. Plant out annual summer bedding? Plant up containers, hanging baskets and planters Plant out tender vegetables such as courgettes, squash, tomatoes and sweet corn There is still time to plant runner beans - sow them directly in the ground now. Protect any developing fruits from birds and squirrels by placing netting around your plants. Another constant task around the garden at this time of year is dead heading - remove spent flowers from containers, pots, hanging baskets, beds and borders and feed them all occasionally with liquid feed. Dead heading diverts energy from producing seed into producing new flowers... so is a good thing all round. Come and have a look round our nurseries, we have 1000s of plants to choose from trees, shrubs, hedging plants, conifers. Open to the public seven days a week

Undecided about your next steps? Visit one of the forthcoming events

SOUTH Staffordshire College are inviting school leavers who are still undecided about their next steps to join them at their open events later this month.

The events, which take place from 20th - 25th June at each of the College campuses in Tamworth, Lichfield, Cannock and Rodbaston, are the perfect opportunity for visitors to tour the state-of-the-art facilities, meet the expert staff and find out more about College life.

They are also a fantastic way for those who are unsure about their options after finishing school to receive advice and guidance that is tailored to their individual aspirations.

From Diplomas and Apprenticeships to Certificates and Traineeships, South Staffordshire College boast a huge range of courses in a wide variety of subjects; from Land based Technology and Engineering to Childcare and Art.

Following their popularity at previous events, visitors will once again have the chance to see a range of practical demonstrations, which for those who want to know more about their subject of choice, provide a fantastic opportunity to gain valuable industry insights and tips from the college's specialist staff.

In addition to full-time learners, the college are also poised to welcome adults who want to find a new hobby by signing up to one of the hundreds of new part time courses starting at dates and times throughout the year.

These courses, some of which are free of charge, are open to those aged 19 plus and include subjects such as web development, dog grooming, photography and many more.

For those who are currently working towards their A Levels, or for adults who want to boost their career prospects, the college also offer a growing range of University level qualifications, delivered in partnership with Staffordshire University and the University of Wolverhampton.

Courses

With fees for these courses being up to £2,000 less than most universities and flexible study patterns, these courses, which as of September will also include Foundation Degrees Music Performance Technologies and Event Management are increasingly popular for those who want to gain higher level qualifications whilst managing existing commitments. Open event attendees will also be able to find out more about the College's brand new state-of-the-art AgriSTEM Academy.

Based at the College's 180 hectare Rodbaston Estate and opening in Autumn 2016, the Academy is the latest in a long line of impressive developments delivered by the College. One-of- a-kind, The AgriSTEM Academy will deliver some of the most cutting-edge learning facilities for the Advanced Manufacturing & Engineering (AME) and the Agricultural Engineering & Technology (AgriTech) sectors in the country.

Those who are interested in finding out more about what South Staffordshire College has to offer and would like to attend the Open Events can either pre-register online at www.southstaffs.ac.uk/events or simply drop in to the campus of their choice on the day.

Despite applications for this September being at an all time high, the College still have spaces available for their courses and are advising that anyone who is interested in 'signing up' can do so online in just 25 seconds at www.southstaffs.ac.uk

All action as work begins on new 'free running' site

WORK has started on a new parkour park in Burntwood. Lichfield District Council and Cherry Orchard Gardening Services are working together on the scheme.

Following a successful bid for funding from the Department for Communities and Local Government's Pocket Parks Programme, contractors moved onto the site on Friday.

When complete, the facility next to the skatepark in Cherry Close will offer various obstacles to practise parkour, also known as free running.

Parkour is a non-competitive, physical discipline of training to move freely over and through any terrain using only the body.

Respect

The sport encourages self-improvement, discipline and reliance.

It also encourages respect for others and for one's environment, community spirit and the importance of play.

The council will also use the funding to host parkour sessions and events, as well as landscaping the surrounding area with new plants.

Councillor Andy Smith, cabinet member for leisure and parks on the district council, said: "It's great news that Burntwood will have a dedicated space to practise parkour.

"Our hope is that lot of people will jump at the chance to take part in this popular and growing sport, at their own pace, for free," he added.

Cherry Orchard Gardening Services (COGS) manages the former youth and community building on the site.

Ian Wells, co-manager of COGS, said: "We're sure the local community will have great fun on the parkour wall. Our hope is that it will attract more people to make use of the community centre and grounds."

The new parkour facility is expected to be complete by the end of this month, and the council is aiming to officially open it at an event later in the summer that will showcase parkour in action.

Signs point to avoiding deer deaths

DEER Ranger Rob Taylor has enlisted the help of Burntwood councillors in a bid to stop the animals being killed on the roads.

After the deer on a local development site featured on the BBC's Springwatch, Labour councillors are now pressing for housebuilders Taylor Wimpey to help in finding a solution to deer wandering onto the road.

County Councillor for Burntwood North, Sue Woodward, and Lichfield District Councillor for Chasetown, Sharon Banevicius, are, with Mr Taylor, lobbying the developer to install deer deterrent signal devices.

Councillor Woodward said: "The initial response from Taylor Wimpey sounds very positive, for which we are grateful, and I hope we will be able to secure the £2-3000 funding we need."

Try free touch rugby classes

GIRLS under the age of 15 can try touch rugby for free at Burntwood Leisure Centre.

Thanks to England Rugby RFU, Lichfield District Council is running six free sessions for girls in school years 8, 9 and 10.

These will be led by fully qualified RFU community coaches, and will take place on Thursday afternoons from 4-5pm, starting on June 23. There is no need to book, just turn up at reception.

Firefighter rewarded for heroic actions

Firefighter Tim Anslow with Chief Fire Officer Becci Bryant, wife Lisa and daughter Jazmin who also works for Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Services and members of Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Team

A FIREFIGHER whose actions potentially saved a man's life has received a certificate of commendation from the Service.

In February, as he travelled home from work, Tim Anslow, who is based at Chase Terrace Community Fire Station, went to the aid of a man who had been involved in a road traffic collision.

Noticing that the man was bleeding seriously, Tim used a friend's belt to tie around the man's legs to control loss of blood. He kept him warm and conscious whilst waiting for the emergency services to arrive. The casualty was told Tim's actions saved his life. Now the firefighter has been honoured for his efforts during a ceremony at the Rugeley Road station.

Station manager Tim Hollingworth said: "Mr Anslow's actions undoubtedly helped to save this gentleman's life and deserve to be recognised."

Committed to serving the district

BURNTWOOD Town Council chairman Beth Fisher has pledged her commitment to the district of Lichfield.

Councillor Fisher also sits on Lichfield District Council and took part in the annual civic service at the city's cathedral.

She said: "It's such a privilege to represent Burntwood. The service was lovely and I enjoyed meeting dignitaries from across the region."

District Council chairman Councillor David Salter, led the Act of Commitment during the Evensong service. He invited all councillors to acknowledge their responsibility to the community and pledge their commitment to the service of the people of Lichfield District.

Councillor Salter said: "I was honoured to lead my fellow councillors in the Act of Commitment."

Summer fun in the park

FREE fun events are taking place in Burntwood parks throughout the summer school holidays

A host of organisations have combined to put on the Play in the Parks events, which kick off in Elder Lane Park on August 1. from 11am to 3pm.

Events will follow until August 25 at Redwood Park, Cherry Close, St Matthews Cricket Ground and Chase Terrace Park. They will football and rounders games.

Fire-hit play area reopens for summer

Councillor Mike Sutherland at the play area in Heath Hayes where equipment has been replaced following a devastating blaze

AN arson ravaged play park in Cannock has reopened after the damaged play equipment was replaced.

The children's play area in Hayes Way, Heath Hayes, was gutted back in November last year when it was targeted by arsonists.

Photographs taken at the time showed the park burnt out, with a melted and charred climbing frame and slide making it almost unrecognisable.

But in January, Cannock Chase Council's cabinet approved funding of more than £36,000 to go towards replacing the damaged equipment at Hayes Way and Pye Green, which was also targeted by arsonists a month before Heath Hayes.

Damaged

Councillor Christine Mitchell, the council's boss for culture and sport, said she was 'delighted' that the two targeted sites had new equipment and that it was 'disappointing' they were targeted in the first place.

She said: "I am delighted that both sites have now had their damaged equipment replaced.

"These play areas are very popular with residents and their children, and it is extremely disappointing that they were vandalised. I really hope that the new equipment is looked after for the younger children, who get so much enjoyment out of using it."

Councillor Mike Sutherland said: "I am delighted that we have been able to reopen the park so quickly in time for the summer so all of the young children can use it."

JLF MOVING SOLUTIONS LTD

JLF Moving Solutions are a friendly family run removals company based in the heart of Cannock and we provide a complete professional removals service for both the home and business sector. We are strategically located within the Midlands, and we provide removal services throughout the UK and abroad and have over 30 years of experience in the industry and cover every aspect of a stress free move. We have just relocated to larger premises, still on Hawks Green Business Park, but with the business growth over recent years we needed extra space for storage and vehicles.

We are also a specialist in a number of niche sectors, including the fire and flood industry and the installation of show homes, as well as carrying out relocations, office and commercial moves and providing secure storage facilities. Over the years the company has carried out work for government projects, banks, public houses and large industrial organisations. We offer a first class, efficient and dependable service, and many of our clients are repeat customers that have regularly relied on us over the years.

Run by directors Steve Lomas and John Lomas, JLF only uses full time crew members, and all employees wear standard uniform, allowing for easy identification on site, and all staff are CSCS carded and DBS checked.

We have an existing fleet of vehicles varying in size, including large vehicles for bigger moves as well as smaller vans which are ideal for getting in and out of tight accesses. We also provide a full or part home pack service, and we pride ourselves in providing a professional hassle and stress free removal service.

We are a member of BAR (British Association of Removers), FORS (Fleet Operation Recognition Scheme) and FEDEMAC (European Movers).

BRADLEY FRAMING

We are based on Hawks Green Business Park, Cannock, and we provide a full range of picture framing services to the general public and business customers alike. Picture frames are made to order for pictures, photographs, needlecraft, memorabilia, 3D objects and more. A large range of frame types and methods of framing are possible, meaning comparable products can be offered across a wide price range. We are sensitive to customer's requirements and promise to find the right solution.

Our highly professional service is available 7 days a week; call and make an appointment for any time outside regular hours. If it is not possible to visit the shop, business and home visits are available within 15 miles of Cannock, without obligation to purchase, for a fixed fee, please call for a price or more details.

We also offer some other complimentary services, where the same customer-centric approach applies.

- Canvas printing and stretching.
- Giclée (digital inkjet) printing.
- Photographic printing (sublimation and inkjet wide format).
- Graphic adaptation services (re-authoring and idea realisation).
- Volume printing (business cards, flyers, letter heads, post cards, etc.).

We have an ever expanding group of customers, located around Cannock and beyond, including small and large organisations as well as the general public and we look forward to welcoming you. We also take a keen and sensible approach to environmental sustainability. All the materials used are purchased from accredited and sustainable sources. There is a re-use, re-cycle system of disposal in place and, where financially viable, the business is committed to improving its carbon footprint.

S&R MOTORBODIES

We are a small family run business that has been established over 20 years and all of our friendly and helpful staff are fully skilled and trained in all aspects of motor vehicle repair.

GOLIATH HOME WORLD

Your home is the biggest investment you are likely to make in your lifetime. Choosing how best to make the most of your investment is not always easy, you are bombarded with great new ways to make your house a home. Everywhere you look, there is another home improvements business opening, so how do you choose which companies to entrust your home and your money?

When someone decides to make home improvements to their home they want as many assurances as possible that the ultimate decision is the right one. There are many considerations to make before this point, and luckily the decision has been made much easier by a well respected and traditional, established company which will assist your decision from the start.

Goliath Home World Ltd based on Hawks Green Business Park, Cannock, will soon be coming up to 30 years of trading, and in that time the company has refused to stand still and let the grass grow under its feet. First came the Windows and Doors, closely followed by Conservatories, Kitchens, Bedrooms, Bathrooms, Synthetic Grass and Solid Roofs with a further two products to be launched this year.

The Goliath motto is 'One stop shopping with everything under one roof' and we mean it! The large showroom demonstrated our long term commitment to serving our customers with the quality associated with the Goliath brand.

We also offer more than just a 'have a look and buy' service, we pride ourselves on being able to provide our customers with unique, innovative designs for your home, with quality products they can afford. All our sales staff are design trained to provide each customer with a complete bespoke service if needed. The design, consultations, fitting and building work is completed by Goliath Home World staff, so you can rest assured the full process is carried out with the Goliath Home World standard of care and commitment, from start to finish.

''The Goliath Home World Group are committed to providing a professional service. Our key objective is to guarantee customer satisfaction, where quality and reliability are paramount. Continued investment and commitment to quality enables us to offer you the customer, a value for money service that is second to none."

RALVERN UPHOLSTERY

Ralvern Ltd have long been providing our customers with an exceptional service, ever since the business was first established by Ralf Collis in 1946. Now his grandsons, identical twins Simon and Chris Edwards, run the well-established family business and the same commitment to excellent customer service is still in place.

Manufacturing all manner of sofas, settees, chairs, chaise lounge and occasional chairs from their base in Cannock, the company can create any type of design, from ultra modern to classically traditional. Their highly skilled craftsmen can create any look our customers want for their home, we offer a really helpful and welcoming approach and enjoy exceeding customer's expectations. There are no salesmen at Ralvern and customers deal direct with Simon or Chris. We have a very personal approach to customer relations and want to take care of customers ourselves, that's why we cut out the salesmen, so that we can offer a unique, personal and relaxed approach.

In-house frame making enables clients to design their lounge from concept, because all frames at Ralvern are made from scratch. We use only the best materials and we have the freedom to create sizes and designs that will suit any room taste. We include a lifetime frame, six inch coil springs and our build quality is always exceptional.

We are well known for our excellent standards, establishing an excellent reputation over the 70 years they've been in business. Our gallery of fabric books perfectly illustrates our capacity to create almost any type of design, using our experience, drive and passion. It's not just making bespoke designs that Ralvern takes care of though, the team also offer a complete re-upholstery service as well. If you can't bear to part with your existing suite, we offer a superior reupholstered service that goes above and beyond recovering your choice of fabric and leathers. The team can recreate the original suite to an even higher standard that it was originally built. As a standard we strip your lounge sofas back to the frame and can start from scratch, using superior foams, fillings, springs and cushions. The sofa is then finished by our highly experienced craftsmen to achieve a truly unique lounge setting.

Ralvern will collect your existing suite from home, offer you a replacement whilst work is carried out and deliver the finished suite once completed. Customers are welcome to come and see us at work, carrying out both the manufacturing and reupholstered process in our factory showroom. Whatever you've got in mind for your home, contact Ralvern Ltd today to discuss your ideas. Visit www.ralvernupholstery.co.uk to view completed projects or to look for inspiration for your own dream design.

JACK LIVESEY TILES

A family run business for over 30 years, Jack Livesey Tiles are renowned for a huge choice of fine quality ceramic and porcelain tiles, mosaics and natural stone. In our new, purpose built showroom, we have over 50 tiled settings designed to inspire you and take the guess work out of making your choice. We work with the finest Italian, Spanish and English tile manufacturers to bring you the very latest stunning designs for every room in your home, whatever your budget. With thousands of tiles and mosaics available we can cater for any design and colour scheme that you wish to create. We can help with free samples for you to take home and try, and we can arrange for manufacturers brochures to be sent directly to your home or emailed if you'd prefer.

Our experienced staff are always here to give you technical and design advice for all aspects of your tiling project. From the smallest splash back right through to a complete wet room, we are always here to help. We can also assist in calculating the quantity of tiles for your room. Simply measure the length and width of each area you wish to tile and the continuous length for any borders and we will do the rest! Many of our tiles are in stock, so if you wish to take them away with you, we can load your vehicle immediately. If you require a large quantity of tiles, we can arrange delivery to any part of the UK or further if required..

Whatever your project, we here at Jack Livesey are sure to be of help. With our years of experience, we are confident that we can turn our hand at any designs and aesthetics of tiles. Not only can we supply a range to suit your taste for the particular project you have in mind, we can also supply a range which suits your home. For example, if you are looking to tile your bathroom in a way that will match your Victorian home, we have no problem in doing so.

Now Cyndi just wants to have fun

In the pink – Cyndi Lauper has recorded an album of her country music favourites, called Detour, and performs in Birmingham

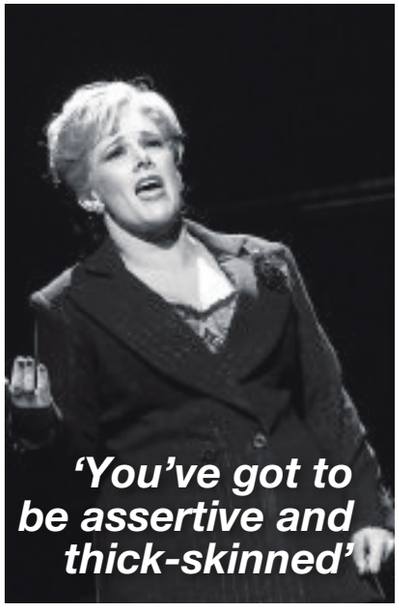
QUIRKY New Yorker Cyndi Lauper, who lit up the 1980s pop scene with Girls Just Want To Have Fun, True Colors, Time After Time and She Bop, is in concert at Birmingham Symphony Hall on Wednesday, June 22.

After over 50 million sales to date, Cyndi's musical journey took an unexpected turn on her 11th studio album 'Detour', with the Grammy, Emmy and Tony-winning 62-year-old singer-songwriter putting her signature spin on a dozen classic country songs. The album, released last month, was a labour of love and showcases that unmistakable voice on country classics from the 1940s to '60s with guest appearances from country stars including Alison Krauss and Willie Nelson.

Cyndi recorded the album in Nashville with the city's top session players. She says recording a country album is something she's dreamed about for years. She grew up listening to singers like Patsy Cline and Loretta Lynn in her Aunt Gracie's kitchen.

"When I was a really young kid, country music was pop music, so this is what we grew up listening to. These songs are part of some of my earliest memories," she says.

Cyndi wrote the songs for hit Broadway show Kinky Boots, now playing in London's West End.



Back to the cell block

X Factor winner Sam Bailey will be swapping her former real life role as a prison officer to play an inmate when the musical Chicago comes to Wolverhampton on tour next week.

The singer will play cell block boss Mama Morton when the 1920s-set jazz musical is staged at the Grand Theatre from Monday to Saturday.

Sam Bailey worked as a prison officer at HM Prison Gartree for three years until 2013. At the end of that year Sam won the tenth series of the X Factor receiving more than a million votes over the course of the final weekend.

Following her win, her debut single Skyscraper was the Christmas chart-topper and was followed in 2014 with her debut album, The Power of Love, reaching number one in the album charts.

Asked if she would draw upon her experience for her role as prison fixer Mama Morton, Leicester mum-of-three Sam said: "You've got to be quite assertive and thick-skinned. I loved my job and miss the people. I have the utmost respect for anyone working in the prison system."

Hot shot lawyer Billy Flynn will be played by EastEnders actor John Partridge and Coronation Street's Hayley Tamaddon will play nightclub singer turned killer Roxie Hart.

Kander and Ebb's hit show, which was also made into a movie, features famous choreography by Bob Fosse. Tickets are on sale at grandtheatre.co.uk or call 01902 429212.

The production will also be at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre over the festive season as the city's musical alternative to panto.

Oh Bhoy, lots of comedy on the way

SCOTTISH comedian Danny Bhoy will be giving audiences in Wolverhampton a preview of his new show next month.

The funnyman is trialling his new material in a series of small shows around the UK. He will be at the Slade Rooms on Saturday, July 2.

Meawhile, other comics heading to Wolverhampton include Mitch Benn at Wolverhampton Art Gallery on September 22 and Felicity Ward with her 50% More Likely To Die show at the same venue on October 16. Both are BBC Radio 4 regulars.

Tickets for all three shows are available online at the www.wolvescivic.co.uk website.

Showcase for talent taking to the stage

A FESTIVAL which celebrates local talent comes to Newhampton Arts Centre this weekend.

Enact Festival will see theatre companies showcase their work in performances and a networking fair.

Visitors will have the chance to share information, skills, experiences and opportunities with each other and members of the public.

It runs tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday and will include a performance showcases at 7.30pm on both evenings and a script-reading workshop from 2pm-4.30pm on the Saturday.

The arts centre is on Dunkley Street, Wolverhampton.

Buster brings ska legends to Robin

BUSTER Bloodvessel brings raucous ska legends Bad Manners to Bilston's Robin 2 venue tomorrow night (Friday) with special guest Max Splodge.

Other highlights at the Mount Pleasant venue this week include prog rockers Frost* on Sunday and American country blues rockers Hymn For Her on Tuesday.

Burntwood metal outfit My Brother The Wolf are at Wolverhampton's Slade Rooms on Saturday. That's the same night punk veterans Angelic Upstarts play the Hare and Hounds in Kings Heath and This Burning Age are at Sunflower Lounge on Smallbrook Queensway.

UK's Best Part-Time Band Final
(BBC2, 10pm)
The nationwide amateur band contest reaches its conclusion as the six finalists and their celebrity mentors try to outperform each other in a 'battle of the bands' concert at the Rltz in Manchester. Ultravox frontman Midge Ure selected two acts from Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales, while New Order basist Peter Hook picked the contingent from northern England. Jazzie B, meanwhile, chose the south's acts, picking out Garage punks King Salami. As each act performs an original tune and a cover song, members of the audience will vote to determine which group will be named Britain's Best Part-Time band. Last in the series.

7.30 MOTD: Euro 2016 Live. Portugal v Austria (Kick-off 8.00pm). Gary Lineker presents coverage of the second Group F encounter for both teams, which comes from Parc des Princes in Paris. Dominant qualifying campaigns for these two sides meant they went into the tournament as the favourites to progress from this group, and whatever the outcome of their opening matches, they will each see this as a vital fixture. The last meeting between the nations was a 1-1 draw 21 years ago. Since then the Portuguese have amassed far more experience in major tournaments than tonight's opponents, and will fancy their chances of victory should talisman Cristiano Ronaldo be on form. However, with the likes of Bayern Munich star David Alaba, title-winning Leicester City left-back Christian Fuchs and maverick Stoke City winger Marko Arnautovic among their ranks, the Austrians have their strongest side for many years. With commentary by Guy Mowbray and Martin Keown, and analysis by Rio Ferdinand and Alan Shearer.

David Cameron

Question Time EU Special: The Case for Remain (BBC1, 6.45pm)

David Dimbleby hosts the second of two live programmes in which leading political figures outline the arguments on both sides of the EU referendum debate and field questions from an audience of voters. In last week's first edition, Justice Secretary Michael Gove presented the case for leaving the European Union in a debate from Nottingham, while in tonight's programme, Prime minister David Cameron appears in Milton Keynes and discusses the advantages for the UK in retaining its membership of the EU.

7.30 MOTD: Euro 2016 Live. Switzerland v France (Kick-off 8.00pm). Gary Lineker presents coverage of the third and final match of Group A for both teams, which takes place at Stade Pierre-Mauroy in Lille. These nations also faced each other in the final match of the group stage at Euro 2004 in Portugal, and on that occasion it was the French who emerged triumphant as they recorded a 3-1 win. If that doesn't leave the Swiss feeling as though they have a score to settle, then the 5-2 trouncing they suffered in a group-stage match at the 2014 World Cup in Brazil surely must, especially given that the two goals they managed to score came during the last 10 minutes, when it had effectively ceased to be much of a contest. France were in rampant mood on the night, with five different players getting on the scoresheet, and while some of the Swiss squad may still carry emotional baggage from that encounter, they can at least look to head coach Vladimir Petkovic for assurance given that he has replaced Ottmar Hitzfeld, who was previously in charge.

PICK OF THE WEEK

Famous faces look to serve up a tasty treat

The pots and pans have hardly had time to be washed and dried from the last series of MasterChef, but it's already time for a new series of the Celebrity incarnation.

Once again, John Torode and Gregg Wallace will be putting a host of famous faces through their paces, and one of the show's executive producers, David Ambler, thinks this year's contestants are another strong bunch.

"We've got a fantastic line-up of willing celebrities ready to commence culinary battle," he says.

"John and Gregg really push the celebs to reach for the culinary heights and there's no shortage of entertainment and drama.

"Despite the blood, sweat and tears we see some of the best food we have seen in our 11 years of doing the show."

The other executive producer Carla-Maria Lawson agrees:

"This year's celebrities come from an incredibly mixed range of backgrounds and the diversity of their life experiences is reflected in their food.

"This is one of the most passionate groups of celebrity cooks we've ever had on MasterChef."

TOWIE star Amy Childs and Strictly Come Dancing pro Gleb Savchenko are among the celebs who will have their spatulas at the ready in a bid to impress John and Gregg over the next six weeks.

Fresh from his turn on The Jump is ex-EastEnder Sid Owen, who will go up against fellow Walford resident Laila Morse. Keeping up the pop star contingent is Blue singer Simon Webbe, who has already tested his nerves on I'm A Celebrity…, and former Sugababe Amelle Berrabah.

On the sporting front, former England rugby player Neil Back will also be attempting to whip up some impressive dishes, as will Olympic gold medal-winning boxer Audley Harrison.

Paralympian Liz Johnson will also compete in the kitchen along with former pop star Richard Coles.

Other additions to the line-up include Shameless star Tina Malone, presenters Cherry Healy and Louise Minchin, and Antiques Roadshow's David Harper.

The first famous faces taking part tonight and beginning their quest to succeed 2015 champ Kimberly Wyatt are comedian Tommy Cannon, TV presenter and actress Donna Air, writer and presenter of The Real Hustle Alexis Conran, YouTube vlogger Marcus Butler and singer Sinitta.

Their opening Mystery Box challenge is to use ingredients including squid, lamb mince and chickpeas to create a single dish.

Then, the quintet are split up and dispatched to two different restaurants to cater for paying customers.

Finally, they get one last chance to impress John and Gregg with a two-course menu of their own design before one of them is sent home.

The 11th series will see the infamous Mass Catering Challenges being held at Arsenal Football Stadium, Battersea Power Station, Virgin Atlantic Training Centre and Olympic Athlete training facility Bisham Abbey.

Celebrity MasterChef, Wednesday, BBC1, 8pm

FILM CHOICES

MONDAY
The World's Fastest Indian, BBC2, 3.15pm
A pensioner motorbike enthusiast travels from New Zealand to the salt flats of Utah in the hope of getting a chance to break the world land-speed record on his vintage Indian Scout. However, he encounters many obstacles, since not everyone he meets on his journey shares his passion and optimism. Fact-based drama, starring Anthony Hopkins. (2005)

TUESDAY
Columbo: Lovely but Lethal, ITV, 12am
A cosmetics company is rocked by the revelation that a pirated version of their latest product is on the market, and then, shortly afterwards, one of their chemists is found murdered. But when the shabby sleuth scrutinises the case, he suspects the events are linked to a rival company. Detective drama, starring Peter Falk. (1973)

Defiance, Thursday, BBC2, 10.30pm

WEDNESDAY
Heart of the Country, Channel 5, 3.15pm
The wife of a Wall Street stockbroker finds her glamorous existence brought crashing to a halt when her husband is imprisoned for fraud. Forced to return to rural North Carolina where she grew up, she attempts to make peace with her estranged father and deal with unresolved issues surrounding the death of her mother. Drama, starring Jana Kramer. (2013)

THURSDAY
Defiance, BBC2, 10.30pm
Three Jewish brothers escape into the woods during the 1939 Nazi invasion of Poland, and launch a series of guerrilla attacks on German forces. As word of their actions spreads, other refugees join them to form a larger resistance movement. However, one of the brothers fears their struggle is doomed. Second World War drama, starring Daniel Craig. (2008)

FRIDAY
A Few Best Men, BBC1, 11.40pm
An Englishman falls in love with a woman he meets on holiday in Australia, and asks her to marry him. However, he then makes the mistake of bringing three friends over to be his best men. Comedy, starring Xavier Samuel and Laura Brent. (2011)

BEST OF THE REST

MONDAY
Euro 2016
ITV, 7.15pm
Slovakia v England (Kick-off 8.00pm). All the action from the final Group B game for both countries, which takes place at the Stade Geoffroy-Guichard in Saint-Etienne. These sides have only met three times in the past, with the most recent clash coming in a friendly encounter in March 2009. Wayne Rooney netted twice in a 4-0 win at Wembley Stadium that night, with Emile Heskey and Frank Lampard also on the scoresheet. The format of the tournament this time means that four of the teams finishing third in their group will progress to the last 16, along with the winners and runners-up, meaning the final fixtures in each group are likely to take on even greater relevance. Presented by Mark Pougatch, with commentary by Clive Tyldesley and Glenn Hoddle, and analysis from Ian Wright, Peter Crouch and Lee Dixon.

TUESDAY
EU Referendum: The Great Debate
BBC1, 8pm
With just a few days to go until we face the biggest European Union shake up in decades, David Dimbleby, Mishal Husain and Emily Maitlis are on hand to present this offering – one of the biggest debates of the EU referendum campaign, live from the SSE Arena, Wembley in London. Featuring high-profile politicians, business people and cultural figures who will debate Britain's membership of the EU in front of an audience of thousands. Plus, reaction from the world's media and the BBC's reality check team

WEDNESDAY
Rescue Dog to Super Dog
Channel 4, 8pm
More than 100,000 dogs are abandoned in the UK each year, with many of the pooches ending up at rescue centres. However, as this heart-warming three-part series has shown, help is at hand in the form of a new initiative retraining rescue dogs as companions for people with disabilities. In tonight's concluding part, the team helps find a helper dog for Manchester-based Paula who has a faulty immune system. She is matched with a boxer called Stanley, and hopes a dog will be able to help her with challenging daily tasks and provide her with invaluable companionship. Meanwhile, second-year student Ellie has cerebral palsy and desperately needs support as she strives to become an independent adult. Will rescue puppy Zamba be the answer?

THURSDAY
What Britain Buys
Channel 4, 8pm
Mary Portas presents this occasional look at how Britons shop and which products they buy, focusing on the growing popularity of contactless spending on cards, phones and even watches. She also looks at the trend for putting snail slime on the face, and face masks for the bottom, and at the millions of mums – and dads – doing the school run in leggings. Plus, how singing in the car has made dashcams the latest motoring must-have, and the way smart toys are affecting children's play.

Glastonbury 2016, Friday, BBC2, 10pm

FRIDAY
Oscar Pistorius: The Interview
ITV, 9pm
He was once hailed as a Paralympic hero and an inspiration to people around the world– but all that changed when Oscar Pistorius shot and killed his girlfriend Reeva Steenkamp on Valentine's Day 2013. Last year, South Africa's Supreme Court convicted him of murder, overturning the previous conviction of culpable homicide, and he is currently awaiting sentencing, which is expected to be delivered later this month. Here, Pistorius gives his first television interview about the events of that fateful night as investigative journalist Mark Williams-Thomas questions him about the key details of the prosecution case, his relationship with Reeva and the allegations of previous abusive behaviour. The Steenkamp family were asked to take part in the programme, but declined.

Glastonbury 2016
BBC2, 10pm
New series. From their bird's eye studio view high up at Worthy Farm in Pilton, Somerset, presenters Jo Whiley, Mark Radcliffe, Lauren Laverne, Huw Stephens and roving reporters Gemma Cairney and Martin Dougan report on events at the world-famous music event.

Café culture – The 28 Tram Café in Lisbon

Monument to the Discoveries at Belem

View from the terrace of The Insolito restaurant

Decor in the Bar Procopio, Lisbon

Lisbon has been brought up to date but still enjoys its historical glory

WHEN I lived in Lisbon 14 years ago, I stayed, rent-free, in a dilapidated 12-bedroom palacio owned by a bon vivant called Jorge who wafted through its crumbling corridors with an air of faded grandeur.

By Sarah Marshall

He typified an aristocratic capital since forgotten by the rest of Europe, where colourful characters eked out a fantasy existence by surviving on cheap rents.

For decades, Lisbon has been trapped in a wonderful time warp: specialist shops still sell products from behind wooden counters and weathered doorways reveal historic interiors untouched for years.

But now change is happening at an accelerating pace, and there's a palpable energy in a city that's drifted aimlessly for so long.

According to figures collected by Lisbon's tourist board, the number of visitors to the city increased by 18 per cent from 2013-2015. To cope with the demand, there has been 150 per cent growth in hotel openings during the same period.

Flight access is also improving; earlier this month Monarch launched flights from Manchester, Birmingham and London to the Portuguese capital.

So what's the reason behind this drastic change? It's partly down to changes in government. Four years ago, a century-old law freezing rent charges was scrapped, sparking investment in rundown properties and a plethora of new restaurants and bars.

The results could have been disastrous. Fortunately, though, proud Lisboans prefer to preserve their past rather than raze buildings and start again.

Once dominated by government offices and embassies, Rua Dom Pedro V and the Principe Real district is now filled with wine bars, fashion boutiques and design stores. Climb the wooden staircase of revamped 1800s neo-Moorish mansion Embaixada (Praca do Principe Real, 26) to find ornate interiors just as beguiling as the pop-up shops now housed inside.

Value

The concept of upcycling was key to the design of new hotel AlmaLusa Baixa/Chiado, which occupies a former arsenal on Praca do Municipio – another area of the city enjoying a new lease of life. Every aspect of the city offers great value for money.

In April, Post Office Travel Money rated Lisbon the cheapest city in Western Europe in their City Costs Barometer. It's possible to dine for around £8 per head and even the 45-minute metro journey from the airport into town costs less than a couple of Euros.

This is one of the few European cities where independent businesses have the upper hand on generic big brands. From dusty, traditional stores to trendy new ones, local shops champion artisan Portuguese products such as paper-wrapped soaps, household linens and even canned fish.

Of course, Lisbon still bathes in the glory of its historical sites, including the Unesco World Heritage sites of Belem, linked to the Age of Discoveries. Standing beneath the Monument to the Discoveries, where statues of 33 navigators reach out to the River Tagus, I imagine a time when Vasca do Gama set sail to extend the Portuguese Empire. Right now though, there's so much on Lisbon's own doorstep to explore.

YOUR WEEKLY GUIDE TO HOME BUYING AND LETTING

Cottage steeped in history has original features

Bellbrook Cottage in Bellbrook, Penkridge, has many original features including a beam in the farmhouse-style kitchen reclaimed from Hatherton Hall.

It is for sale through Connells at £350,000. Formerly the old Constables Cottage, the property is of local historical interest and is situated opposite Penkridge Heritage Centre.

Extensively improved by the current owners, on the ground floor the property comprises an entrance hall, a lounge, kitchen, family room, utility, guest WC and a conservatory, while on the first floor are three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside, to the front of the property, is a paved driveway providing off-road parking and rear access, while to the rear is a large garden surrounded by various trees and shrubs.

A spokesman for the selling agents said an exciting opportunity has presented itself with the sale of this property: "Beaming with original character throughout and close to local pubs, this beautifully presented three-bedroom cottage is a must view to fully appreciate its story."

In more detail the entrance hall has antique oak wood flooring and an under-stairs cupboard. The downstairs WC has tiled flooring.

The lounge has French doors opening into the conservatory, antique oak wood flooring, ceiling beams, a traditional door into a reception room and a brick surround open fireplace with an oak beam above.

The reception room overlooks the frontage and has a feature brick wall with open brick fireplace, a log burner and tiled ceramic surround, antique oak flooring and oak ceiling beams.

The kitchen has a range of wall and base units, a door to an entrance hall, a Belfast sink and drainer units, work surfaces, part wall tiling, a double range gas oven with a gas hob, spotlights and an oak beam above, fridge, plumbing for a dishwasher, wine rack, tiled flooring and an oak ceiling beam and the utility has floor tiling.

The conservatory has wood-effect laminate flooring and French doors to the garden.The bathroom has a bath, shower, hand basin, an extractor fan, and WC.

An impressive property with elegant sash windows and classical detailing must be seen to assess potential

A unique late Georgian/early Victorian town house in Talbot Street in the centre of Rugeley has elegant sash windows and classical detailing.

It is for sale through Chase Independent at £284,950 with no chain.

The detailing is to the window and door heads, a hipped roof, arched windows and doors that are typical of the Italian villa style.

The accommodation is set over several floors, and in brief comprises two reception rooms, a snug, a large kitchen with utility/pantry area, a wine cellar, visitor WC, and a boot/office room.

RUGELEY
£284,950

There are three bedrooms over two floors and a family bathroom.

Outside is a brick-built storage/workshop, private gardens and a coachhouse with studio over. A spokesman for the selling agent said: "In need of some upgrading, this impressive property must be viewed to fully appreciate the potential."

The property is being sold with no onward chain.

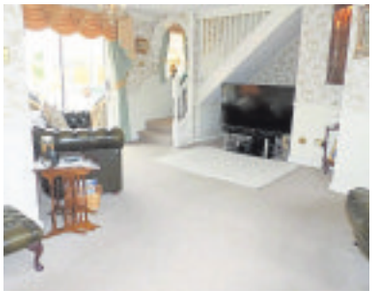
PROPERTY



Impressive traditional house is immaculately presented

An impressive traditional detached house, 51 Stafford Road, Great Wyrley, lies in a pleasant location set back from the road behind a tree-lined garden and gated driveway.

GREAT WYRLEY

£395,000

Immaculately presented, it is for sale through Paul Carr at £395,000.

It has a porch, guest WC, dining room, kitchen, conservatory, three bedrooms, garage, driveway, a rear garden and double glazing and gas central heating.

In more detail the lounge is light and spacious and has an attractive bay window, a feature fireplace and sliding doors to the good sized conservatory. The dining room has a bay window and feature fireplace and the kitchen is well appointed with under-unit lighting.

The bedrooms are all generous and two have storage. Off the main bedroom is an open sun terrace.

For further information contact Paul Carr on 01922 701001 or visit www.paulcarrestateagents.co.uk

Terrific trio of show homes now open at development

Barratt Homes West Midlands has a terrific trio of show homes at its new development of Holly Blue Meadows in Robins Road at Chasewater.

The new development currently has a range of two and three-bedroom homes available to buy off-plan in a number of styles, priced from £127,995 to £215,950.

The modern show homes are a two-bedroom Ashford-style house, a three-bedroom Barwick-style house and a four-bedroom Kington-style house.

Each one has been decorated with the latest styles by interior designers Territory, to provide visitors with an idea of what their own new home could look like at this welcoming development.

The semi-detached two-bedroom Ashford features a fitted kitchen, plus dining room and lounge with French doors which lead out to the garden. Upstairs the property has two double bedrooms, plus a bathroom and storage area.

The Barwick is a three-bedroom semi-detached house with a fitted kitchen and breakfast area, with a living and dining area with French doors leading to the garden. A master bedroom, with en suite, can be found upstairs, as well as one other double bedroom, a single bedroom and a family bathroom.

Last, but by no means least, the Kington is an impressive detached four-bedroom house with a single detached garage. On the ground floor is a comfortable lounge, plus a kitchen dining area and utility room, while upstairs can be found a master bedroom with en suite, a further double bedroom, plus two single bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Nicola Watton, sales manager at Holly Blue Meadows, said: "We hope visitors are inspired by these three superb show homes, and that the designs paint a good picture of what living at this exciting new development could be like.

"I'd encourage anyone interested in buying a new home in the area to visit the development soon to see for themselves."

Holly Blue Meadows will provide a mixture of two, three and four-bedroom homes to meet the increasing demand for new properties in the area. Located opposite Chasewater Country Park, with the town of Burntwood nearby, it's an ideal place to call home.

For more information about the development or to book a tour of the new show homes call the sales centre on 07739 702373 (open Monday 12.30pm to 5.30pm and Thursday to Sunday 10am to 5.30pm) or visit www.barratthomes.co.uk/hollybluemeadows

VAUXHALL

All new car offers include Vauxhall Partners Discount and solid paint, metallic costs extra. Images and colours shown are for illustrative purposes only and may show optional equipment. Whilst every effort is made to ensure the offer details are accurate and up to date, Vauxhall reserves the right to change offers at any time. Vauxhall Corsa Energy advertised offer includes Vauxhall Star Car Support.Offers available on orders or registrations between 3rd - 30th June 2016. ‡Swappage Terms & Conditions. The customer must trade in a qualifying car against the purchase of an eligible new Vauxhall. At the date of the new vehicle order, the customer or their Spouse/Partner/Parent/Child living at the same UK address must have been the registered keeper of the vehicle continuously for at least the last 90 days. The new vehicle must be registered at the same address as the traded vehicle. Vehicles registered in a Retailer's own name are specifically excluded from Swappage support. The new vehicle must be registered to the same address as shown on the V5C of the traded vehicle. Flexible PCP terms and conditions - Personal Contract Purchase. Finance subject to status. T's&C's apply. Applicants must be 18+. Finance by Vauxhall Finance, PO Box 6666, Cardiff, CF15 7YT. 24-48 month term available. *Price shown after deduction of Vauxhall and/or Retailer contribution where applicable. Vauxhall Deposit Contribution only available when vehicle financed through Vauxhall Finance. At the end of the agreement there are three options. i) Pay the optional final payment to own the vehicle, ii) Return the vehicle, or iii) Replace: Part Exchange the vehicle where equity is available. On the road cash prices include number plates, delivery, Vehicle Excise Duty, first registration fee and VAT. Offers may not apply to all Retailer stocks. UK-supplied vehicles only. †Free Insurance terms and conditions - First year insurance offer available on New Corsa Limited Edition only, excluding Red and Black Editions. All drivers must have held a valid full UK licence for a minimum of 1 year. All policies are underwritten by Ageas Insurance Ltd. Other insurance specific T's&C's apply. Drivers aged 18-20 will make a contribution of £99 to their premium and must agree to the fitting of a telematics box to the car: every 3 months, your contribution will be reviewed and if you drive well, we will return part of this to you. The policy may be cancelled for excessive speeding or consistently poor driving. Only available through ingenie. The offer will cover the full premium for drivers aged between 21-75 (motor policy only). Only available through Vauxhall Insurance.

Inspired by original Mini, the designer MINI Seven

By James Parker

MINI has launched its latest design model, MINI Seven. Taking its name from the very first Mini, the 1959 Austin Seven, MINI Seven has been developed to showcase both the distinctive style inspired by the original Mini and the current modern values of the brand.

MINI Seven joins the current generation MINI Hatch range in 5-door or 3-door form with specially designed exterior and interior looks unseen before on this generation's model line-up.

MINI Seven is instantly recognisable by its striking MINI Yours body finish which comes as standard in Lapisluxury Blue – the most intensive blue tone ever applied to a MINI. Three other body finishes from the MINI paint range are also available to choose from; Pepper White, Midnight Black and British Racing Green.

A Melting Silver roof and exterior mirror caps come as standard contrasting with the distinctive body finishes.

Exterior

MINI Seven door sill finishers and side scuttles with the MINI Seven logo as well as 17-inch light alloy wheels in exclusive MINI Seven Spoke two-tone design complete the exterior look.

For those wanting to add their own personal style to the exterior design of MINI Seven, bonnet stirpes in Melting Silver with surround in Malt Brown are also available as an option.

Inside, the eye-catching design cues continue with sports seats in the fabric/leather finish Diamond Malt Brown, designed exclusively for MINI Seven.

There is also a MINI Seven logo on the central instrument which surrounds the MINI Visual Boost 6.5'' colour display which also comes as standard alongside MINI Connected, Bluetooth Handsfree with USB audio, floor mats, MINI Excitement Pack, automatic dual-zone air conditioning and storage compartment pack.

Quality

In addition to the high quality standard equipment offered, MINI Seven has its own bespoke option pack, the MINI Seven Chili.

The MINI Seven Chili offers customers MINI Yours features such as the Lounge Leather Upholstery in Carbon Black and the MINI Yours Steering Wheel in Walk Nappa leather with a waxed hand stitched seem.

The MINI Seven Chili pack also offers additional features which are unique in the small car segment including LED headlights, multifunction controls for the steering wheel and cruise control with brake function.

Additional optional equipment from the MINI range is also available to further customise MINI Seven. This includes the popular panorama glass roof, windscreen heating, front driver and passenger seat heating, the Harmon Kardon hi-fi speaker system as well as MINI Connected XL and MINI Navigation System.

MINI Seven will be have its first UK premiere at Goodwood Festival of Speed on the MINI stand from June 23 to 26 with orders being taken now. Prices start for MINI 3-door Seven from £18,545 on-the-road and from £19,145 for MINI 5-door Seven.

Giving rivals run for their money

IT has a lot of names and definitions, but there's no denying that the crossover, or compact SUV type of car is taking the market by storm – nearly every manufacturer now has an entry in this highly competitive sector.

Yet it's interesting to note that one of the first was the Sportage, from the then bit player Kia: a smaller, cheap and cheerful alternative to the traditional 4x4s of its day.

With its chief rival then the Suzuki Vitara – it now has many more – the well-conceived Sportage has put the Korean car maker on the map in Europe.

The fourth generation Sportage is now in Britain's showrooms. Its rather curvy styling has evolved, it has a choice of three more efficient engines, more in-car and safety technology more refinement and a new marketing philosphy – all aimed at achieving Kia's rather modest ambition to break the 80,000 sales barrier this year.

Prices start at a competitive £17,995 for the entry level model rising to £31,645 for the new flagship model, the First Edition. This gets the new and most powerful engine, a 2.0 litre, 182bhp turbo diesel, six-speed automatic transmission and a unique luxury specification including features such as a power-operated tailgate.

A £30,000 plus price tag for a Sportage? That might surprise those only familiar with the early, rather basic (but still capable) 1.3 litre petrol versions

But this is a very different vehicle and it seems Kia is dipping its toe in the water following its experience with the larger Sorento, where the £40,000 flagship is actually the UK's biggest selling version.

The new Sportage, like the third generation car, is an evolution of the softer, slightly sporty profile of a modern crossover rather than the chunky 4x4 styling of its ancestor in keeping with customer tastes and the competition. On a practical level, it also reduces drag and wind noise. It's also larger which means significantly more room in the cabin, particularly for rear seat passengers.

There are three engine options – all of which use less fuel and produce less CO2 than their predecessors – and the option of two and four wheel drive options.

Four wheel drive versions have a new 'advanced traction cornering control', which monitors speed, steering angle and throttle input, and distributes power between the left and right wheels to maximise stability. This is in addition to now standard systems such as stability control. For those who venture off-road, there's a hill descent system which automatic keeps speed down to 5mph in slippery conditions.

The new Sportage is a nice car to drive. All three engines are quiet and refined, road and wind noise levels are low and a new steering and suspension set-up make it feel light and responsive. Tackling some tight and twisty back roads on the test routes, it felt as easy and positive to drive as a typical family hatchback, something which cannot be said of some of its rivals.

The most popular engine by far in the previous generation Sportage was the 1.7 litre turbo diesel and I suspect that will continue to be the case, especially since it has been re-engineered for significantly better fuel consumption and lower emissions.

The new kid is a 1.6 litre turbocharged petrol unit. It may well be a popular option with the new Sportage's GT-Line sportily-themed trim level but with economy figures of 37.2mpg and 177g/km of CO2 it's likely to lose out to the diesel alternatives for the more economy minded.

Hallmark

As well as its improved driveability and refinement, a hallmark of the new Sportage is the amount of new technology and equipment. All except base models have a centre console with touchscreen display and control centre, including driver information, audio and connectivity systems and navigation.

All models have alloy wheels, LED daytime running lights, cornerng lights, electric windows and mirrors, trailer stability, hill start assist, air conditioning and an audio and Bluetooth system with voice control.

The Sportage is Kia's best-seller in Britain, and from relative humble beginnings as a cheap alternative to the traditionally larger, more powerful and expensive 4x4s of the day it has grown and matured. It is somewhat ironic that it played a major part in inspiring today's rapidly-growing crossover sector and by doing so has created more competitiion for itself. But in the past six years the Sportage has proved itself up to the challenge by remaining Kia's best-seller, and the fourth generation, 2016 model has raised the stakes still further.

It is roomier, more capable with a new range of more efficient engines and equipped with some of the latest technology. Given the Sportage's track record – to say nothing of Kia's impressive seven-year warranty package – it's certain to continue giving rivals a run for their money.

S-Max is taking the stylish to the max

By John Griffiths

Style, practicality and price – in whatever order – must surely be among the main criteria for the decision to make a major investment in a new car. A decade ago Ford combined these essentials in an all-new vehicle, the S-Max, as a sleek, stylish and even sporty-looking alternative to more traditional, boxy seven-seat MPV rivals but with no less practicality.

Now the second generation S-Max is hitting the streets: not, at first sight, a huge change with a few visible changes but substantial improvements in key areas such as refinement, comfort and technology.

The test car was a Titanium trim version powered by what is likely to be the single most popular engine option, the 2.0 litre, 148bhp, turbo diesel. This middle of the range car costs £28,095 – it starts at £24,545 with Ford's 1.5 litre Ecoboost petrol engine while at the other end of the spectrum is a 178bhp model with 'Powershift' automatic transmission and all-wheel drive at a little over £33,000.

If the original S-Max was distinguished from the MPV competition by its dynamic looks, the new version is more of the same, with a longer, lower bonnet, Ford's new slimline headlight cluster and a more tapered rear end. It's styling helps to belie its size, which really becomes apparent once you step inside.

It is based on a modified Mondeo platform, which is a good place to start, and shares much of the drivetrain and technology from the much-admired mid-range saloon.But the difference is size and flexibility. The S-Max has the quality feel and refinement of a premium saloon, but with two extra seats and the ability to transform itself into a cargo carrier to rival many a small van if required.

It's a family car ideal for transporting the kids (and a couple of their friends) on the school run or for weekend activities, but it also has the ideal credentials for a flexible business car carrying valued clients to lunch or a hefty consignment of samples on a sales trip.

Flexibility is another buzzword in MPV land and we're used to the concept of flexible seating and the S-Max system is as good as it gets.

Fold

You can slide each of the three second row seats backwards or forwards, or fold them flat, with one hand. The same is true of the rear pair of seats which form part of a flat load floor: just pull a single strap and each individual seat can be raised and locked into place, and then the safety head restraints raised.

With seven people on board you have 285 litres of cargo space – about that of a mid-sized hatchback – but by juggling with the seats you can increase that to a whopping 2,020 litres, putting many a dedicated estate car to shame.

The interior has an upmarket feel: in the Titanium test car you get heated, sports-styled front seats with an exception view through the big windscreen, uninterupted by the sloping bonnet.

You get climate control, a comprehensive LCD instrument panel which (between the tacho and speedometer) allow you to display a wide range of information. That's in addition to the central touch screen control, for the satnav, audio, connectivity and adjustable vehicle settings.

Traffic sign recognition (which displays, among other things, the current posted speed limit) plus cruise control and an adjustable speed limiter also help to keep you in control. Front and rear parking sensors, lane keeping assistance, multiple airbags and electronic stability systems, and front fog lamps are also on the standard list.

The test car was fitted with the optional Titanium X pack, which sounds expensive at £2,225 but is pretty comprehensive and takes the car up a grade. It includes leather seats (power adjustable for driver and front passenger) and adaptive LED headlights including 'glare free', a system which ensures you won't dazzle oncoming drivers if you're a bit slow on the dip switch.

The upmarket feel of the cabin is matched by the ride experience. The 2.0 turbo diesel is particularly quiet, and the car's suspension system handles its weight well, with an excellent compromise between a supple, cosseting ride and reasonable dynamism.

The rear suspension is new, adapted from that of the latest Mondeo, which is tuned to improve the S-Max's road manners but equally as important to providing a softer, quieter ride for those in the rear two rows of seats.

It has inherited many of the best features of its smaller sibling, the Mondeo, when it comes to the driving experience but with the advantage of seven seats or an enormous cargo capacity when required. In short, it's a true multi-role car with the ambience of a premium saloon.

Prices and specs for the all-new Mégane

By James Parker

Renault's fourth-generation Mégane is available to order now and will arrive in UK showrooms from July.

The all-new Mégane hatchback displays Renault's design language, as well as features and technologies from the executive segment above, into the family car C-segment for the first time. It will be priced from £16,600 on-the- road.

The Mégane is being offered in a 25-version line-up based on six trim levels – Expression+, Dynamique Nav, Dynamique S Nav, Signature Nav, GT-Line Nav and GT Nav. All provide a comprehensive standard specification, rising to the truly luxurious or sporty at the top-of- the-range.

Renault's active and passive safety, such as adaptive cruise control, active emergency braking and lane departure warning have been applied throughout the range, while connectivity via the R-Link 2 system is fitted to all models above Expression+.

Safety

Standard safety features include ABS with electronic brake-force distribution, ESC (Electronic Stability Control) with traction and understeer control, cruise control, speed limiter, hill start assist, six airbags, seat belts with load limiters and pretensioners at the front, side impact protection bars and ISOFIX child-seat mounting points on the two outer rear seats.

All versions provide a two-way adjustable steering column, height adjustable driver and passenger seat, Bluetooth, accessory power point, a 12-volt front socket and ample storage. These all feature on the Expression+ trim level, which also includes an automatic electronic parking brake, LED daytime running lamps, tinted windows, 7-inch TFT instrument panel with digital speedometer, all-round electric windows, leather steering wheel, Bluetooth connectivity, 4 x 20W DAB radio with fingertip controls and AUX input.

At launch there is a choice of four engines – two Energy TCe turbocharged petrol options with capacities and power outputs of 1.2-litres/130hp (manual and EDC) and 1.6-litres/205hp (GT only – EDC). The turbodiesel alternatives offer a 1.5-litre dCi 110 unit, with manual or EDC transmission, or a 1.6-litre dCi 130 engine.

All versions have Renault's 4+ warranty and assistance package.

Spanish style and flair in the Seat Ibiza

By Sharon Walters

It might be part of the huge VWG group but there's nothing Teutonic about the Seat stable. Some thought the former Spanish brand might have lost a little of its sparkle when first bought by VWG but its cars still have more than a splash of Latin passion about them.

Built on common platforms with Volkswagen, Audi and Skoda, the twists on exterior looks give no indication of German owners. Seats certainly can be distinguished in your rear view mirror rather than you wondering which member of the stable it is from.

And now to the updated Ibiza. This supermini was ideally suited to the name of a place associated with younger, hip and happening folk. Think of the tales of all those music venues which still attract club lovers.

This latest version, as did the previous incarnations, attracts a lot of buyers in its pricing along with a good ride an handling.

It is also relatively cheap to run is well built, has a raft of safety features (it has a five-star Euro NCAP crash-test safety rating) with stability control, autonomous emergency braking assistance, tyre-pressure monitoring, a variety of airbags and traction control all as standard and has a high level of equipment.

There's a range of engines and trim levels and I tried out the Ibiza SE 1.4 TDI Ecomotive 75 PS 5-speed manual. This is a great little package if only for the magic Ecomotive tag – official average fuel economy is put at 83.1 mpg and I managed just short of 80mpg. Less visits to the pumps with this car.

It also scores 88 g/km in CO_2 emissions which means you don't pay road tax. And the cost savings continue.

Ibiza has firm suspension, which I prefer, and the result is good body control which leans well through corners. Steering is quick and makes corners fun, especially along country lanes.

Inside drivers can find an almost perfect position in the well-supported seats with height adjustment (standard across all models) plus reach and rake adjustment on the steering wheel.

Clear

Finding what you need on the dash is instinctive thanks to its clear and uncluttered layout.

I don't find a problem with height space thanks to my 5 feet four inches! But six footers in the driver' and front passenger seat have no cause for complaint – although the rear seats are not so generous due to the curved roofline. However legroom is fine along with elbow space.

The boot is good for the size of the car and the 60/40 split rear seats give you flexibility for creating more luggage space and also for carrying large items

Standard kit across the range is good including - alloy wheels, air-conditioning, CD player with iPod socket, electric front windows and front foglamps.

SE grades also get a raft of extras including halogen front headlights, front fog lights with cornering function, LED daytime running lights, LED taillights, more storage pockets and updated infotainment system with a 5-inch colour touchscreen, steering wheel mounted audio and phone controls and six speakers. Plus Bluetooth audio streaming and handsfree system(which actually comes in at the next trim level down).

My test car had a few extras which are well worth considering. A convenience pack including auto-headlights, coming and leaving home function for £230.

For £145 the Full Link should be a must extra for providing compatability with Mirrorlink, Apple CarPlay and Android Auto. Upgraded navigation added £580 and a space saver spare wheel at £100.

Seat has worked on its image of being fun and sporty, leaving its brothers rather on the more serious side, and that effort has worked very well.

Put up against its rivals, it certainly impresses. It is fun to drive and made me feel decades younger than my birth certificate claims.

Price £15,575, £17,160 with extras.

BAKER

Malcolm (Mac) and Eileen

Deb, Rick and Families wish to thank all Family and Friends for the cards, love and support at this sad time.

To lose such beautiful loving Parents and Grandparents, it hurts much more than words can say.

Mom, Dad, Nan and Grandad you both mean the world to all of us and we miss you in every single way.

A big thank you for your generous donations to Kidney Research which raised £460 and The British Heart Foundation which raised £365.

Special thanks to Sellmans Funeral Directors and The Rev. Graham Horner for the lovely Services.

Thanks to The Talbot, at Cheslyn Hay for hosting the celebrations of Mac and Eileen's Lives.

Thank you all so much.

NEWTON

Michael

Sue and Family would like to thank everyone for the many cards and flowers received on the loss of Mick.

Thanks also to Co-operative Funeralcare, Mansefield House and Jenny for arranging flowers.

Donations to St Giles Hospice totalled £401.81.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree. Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Care in Mind are an independent mental health team working with young people with a range of complex mental health difficulties.

We provide residential services for young people aged 16-25 years old who have been discharged from a care setting. The young people we care for often require a high level of support.

Our aim is to support the young people using a therapeutic approach to live in a community setting and to achieve their individual goals.

If you have an enthusiastic can do mentality and a willingness to challenge yourself, please email for an application form to jobs@careinmind.co.uk or ring on 01706620726 between 10am - 1pm.

Care in mind operates a safer recruitment selection process therefore all applicants will be required to undergo a DBS check prior to commencement of employment

STAFFORDSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED) ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991 A460 WESTERN SPRINGS ROAD, RUGELEY (WESTBOUND) DIVERSION OF VEHICULAR TRAFFIC

NOTICE is hereby given that the Staffordshire County Council intend, not less than seven days from the date of this Notice, to make an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in a westerly direction on that length of A460 Western Springs Road, Rugeley from its junction with A460 Horse Fair in a generally westerly direction for a distance of approximately 100 metres unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works. Pedestrian access will be maintained and East bound traffic is unaffected.

The preferred alternative routes for traffic will we be signed on site.

The Order will come into operation on 4th July 2016, and the said works will commence on or as near as practicable to that date. It is anticipated that the works will be completed by 31st July 2016.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the gas main works, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

Cheslyn Hay Table Tennis Club is proving a smash hit as membership figures rise

A smiling Nigel Smith with trophies that he won throughout 2015

Isabel Beastall, aged 11, is a member of the youth team

Quinn and Co serve up up a story of success

HAVING helped more than 300 burgeoning table tennis stars progress, Cheslyn Hay secretary John Quinn is delighted with the impact that the club is making in the local community.

Now with almost 50 members, the Salem Church-based outfit are on an upward spiral, with interest peaking and committed volunteers providing expert coaching.

On top of that, they are doing their bit for those less fortunate than themselves. Quinn revealed that in 10 years they have raised £22,000 for charities worldwide by hosting 12-hour table-tennis marathons, quizzes and horse racing nights.

Quinn has played the game for more than a half-a-century and been involved with the Cheslyn Hay club since its inception in 1974, when they were playing at the old working men's club.

Challenge

"It's fantastic to look back and know that hundreds of kids have come through our youth academy at the club," he said.

"For me, the challenge is to bring all of the youngsters off their computers and Xboxes and get them doing something else. It's extremely social and they're all playing competitive table tennis."

With the help of qualified coach Andrew Beastall, Craig Cartwright and father-and-son duo Martin and Callum Squire, the club has managed to pick itself up after numbers started to dwindle two or three years ago.

Quinn, who last year was presented with a national award from the English Table Tennis Association for more than 40 years 'voluntary service in the game, holds real pride in what they have achieved.

SPORTING FEATURE

By Lewis Cox

"Some of them had never picked up a table tennis bat in their life.

"We train many of them from beginners and we've some top young players."

"Andrew has done so, so well to coach the kids," he added. "Some of them had never picked up a table tennis bat in their life. We train many of them from beginners and we've some top young players.

"Andrew has been given huge support by Martin and his son Callum, who is taking his coaching awards.

"Then to have someone like Craig, who helps with looking after the place, taking tables up and down, is just great. To see the progress is really fantastic.

"Our venue isn't in the best of conditions but we make the most of what we've got.

"Salem Church is 200-odd years old, we have five tables and even a robot training machine who will serve and play topspin shots.Things have gone from strength to strength since Andrew has taken over. He brings fun to the sessions and what we have done is unbelievable."

Amy Beastall, aged 15, has been called up to represent Staffordshire and at one point was ranked as high as 40th in the UK.

As well as bringing impressive youngsters through their ranks, the club's first team have also been finding some real form over the past few years.

Nigel Smith, Paul Bishop and Jeff Parkes compete in the Walsall League's Division One after superb double success in Division Two last year.

They finished the season as league champions and picked up the divisional cup. Smith was also successful in the individual category.

"I've been secretary for 25 years and I'm very, very proud," Quinn added. "There are many clubs closing down and we are doing more than surviving.

Content

"I'm just content that if I were to step down then the club would be able to continue to function. We cater for all players and have some kids as young as 10 with some members in their 80s.

"There's no discrimination, it's social and we hope to increase even more."

The club's home match nights take place on Monday and Tuesday nights, with the church also open on those evenings for training sessions from 7-10pm.

They also run youth academy nights on Wednesdays from 6-7.30pm.

The club are keen to encourage sponsorship, with players travelling far afield to compete in a number of competitions.

Anyone interested should contact club secretary John Quinn on 07846 496715.

Staffs T20 final played under lights

YOUNG cricketers across Staffordshire will be having a blast this summer as the NatWest Under-19 Club T20 competition swings into action.

Participation figures are on the rise for the quick-fire format and the competition aims to recreate the buzz of the professional T20 Blast with the sides wearing coloured clothing, music playing during matches and new team names.

And Staffordshire Cricket are leading the way nationally by staging the finals day under floodlights at Himley CC on August 21.

The competition has more than doubled in size with 23 sides signed up compared to 10 last year.

They will slug it out across four groups around Staffordshire with the four winners progressing to the shootout for silverware and to be crowned county champions.

The increase in teams is welcome news for Staffs Cricket, who have taken on board feedback from teenage cricketers about what they want from the sport.

Kevin Herbert, club and community development officer for Staffordshire Cricket said: "After a successful launch of NatWest U19 Club T20 last summer, feedback given by players, captains and team managers suggests that the players love the music, the T20 atmosphere and the chance to play with their friends.

"Two thirds of participating clubs said they are now more likely to keep playing club cricket in the future."

The Staffordshire group games will be completed by August 14.

Group A: Bagnall Norton Cavaliers, Stone SP, Checkley Aces, Longton Roaders, Knypersley. Group B: Beacon Dragons, Old Hill Strikers, Enville/Swindon Eagles, Himley Rockets, West Bromwich Blast, Wombourne Stars. Group C: Tamworth Tornadoes, Dunstall Stags, Lichfield Lightning, C&R Hawks, Aldridge Lions, Whittington Warriors. Group D: Milford Commoners, Penkridge Scorchers, Wightwick Finches, Old Wulfs Titans, Brewood Badgers, Cannock Stags.

Sudden death win sends county into trophy semi-finals

STAFFORDSHIRE have made it through to the semi-final of the Unicorns Trophy after winning a sudden death bowl-out with Norfolk.

Matthew Coxon hit the winning stumps at Longton before Norfolk captain Chris Brown missed his bowl to give Staffs a 4-3 win.

It was 3-3 after the first over of the bowl-out, Brinder Phagura hitting twice for Staffs and Coxon removing the bails as well. Captain Kadeer Ali said: "It doesn't matter which way you get through, as long as you get through we're happy. It's the first time most of the lads have been involved in a bowl-out so it's good experience. It's a bit harsh on Norfolk but that's the way it is."

Only 18 overs were completed before the 21-over match was abandoned with Norfolk on 134-4.

"They were looking at 170, which we would have been happy to chase because it's a tough ground to defend on," said Ali. "We won four out of four in the group stage and played some really good cricket."

Staffs now face Dorset on July 10.

Club now home to British and UK champs

Sensei Mike Carr with Coni Mae and Sonni

A STUDENT from a Cannock martial arts club has become a UK champion for the second time – at the age of eight.

Ryu Shotokan student Coni Mae Cartwright beat three boys and a girl from ages seven to nine to win the title at the UK open in Birmingham.

Sonni Wilson also managed a silver medal in her all female over 16 category, but then went on to become the British title holder.

Coni Mae followed up at the British Championships at Ponds Forge in Sheffield in her all female category, becoming the third best in her kata category in Britain after only 18 months of training.

But Sonni topped that. Competing in the under 21 category she became the best in Britain – the first time anyone from Ryu Shotokan has held such a title.

Sensei Mike Carr said: "I am extremely proud of the girls. They have worked tirelessly for these championships and have really shown their pedigree.

"They are a fantastic credit to the club."

Ryu Shotokan trains at Nuffield Health, East Cannock Road, Hednesford on Saturday afternoons and at Stafford Active Arts on a Tuesday night.

JUNIORS JUST WIN-DERFUL

ARSENAL'S Invincibles or Leicester City's unlikely Premier League triumph may rank among the greatest footballing achievements. But how about going a whole season having won every single league game?

Wyrley Rangers Under-11s have managed it in their first season in the nine-a-side format.

Competing in the Walsall Junior Youth League (WJYL), the young stars won Group B in the Autumn Trophy, Group Azteca in the Winter Trophy and Group Stiles in the Spring Trophy.

"I can't believe it," said under-11s manager Lee Collins, who took charge of the team during pre-season. "The previous manager packed in at the end of last season and we were seven-a-side then, so the lads were going into their first season in the nine-a-side format.

"We only had seven players so we advertised and there are lads from all over with us; a couple from Tamworth and a couple from Sedgley and it has just managed to click into place.

"We won all of our pre-season games and then we won our first of the season in the dying seconds and it has all followed on from there."

Across the three Trophy successes, Rangers played 17 games, scored 88 goals and conceding just 18 times. They were even named WJYL's team of the month on four occasions.

But the remarkable success came completely out of the blue as in the seasons prior to this one, Rangers struggled to find consistency and were often on the losing end.

They also won the Yorkshire Football Festival for their age group at the Flamingo Land Resort and were handed the sportsmanship cup at the tournament.

"We have had a lot of outstanding performances," said Collins. "We have been the whipping boys for years so we pinch ourselves all of the time."

Collins feels if they can continue to work as hard as they have done all season, they will continue to make progress.

"I doubt we will be able to do it again but if they keep putting the effort in, they can continue to push on."

100 per cent record: The Wyrley Rangers Under-11s squad with their five trophies

Bright future after promising debut season

A HEATH Hayes football team is celebrating a great debut season, including playing at the home of the Premier League champions.

FC Newlands, have only been established for just over a year, but in their first full campaign reached the final of the Walsall Junior Youth League Cup, losing only to a penalty shoot-out.

Spot-kick heartbreak followed again at Leicester City's King Power Stadium as they missed out on a place in the tournament quarter-finals.

Head coach Stuart Harris, who also runs the Newlands Academy on Saturday mornings for children aged two-to-five, said: "There is a bright future for the club and I love being involved with the club's new players at this age."

FC Newlands are a FA Charter Standard Club and will be running an under-14s side next season along with two at under-11s and an under-7s.

Anyone interested in joining, either as a player or coach, is asked to call Stuart Harris on 07714 459735.

Luckie strike as McDonald gets his man

HEDNESFORD Town manager Liam McDonald has moved to reinforce his striking department following the arrival of Jazz Luckie.

Luckie has most recently been at McDonald's former club Redditch United and has also enjoyed spells at Stafford Rangers and Chasetown.

McDonald was pleased to add a different option to his forward line following the signing of the 26-year-old.

He said: "I signed Jazz while I was at Redditch halfway through the season from Stafford Rangers. He is a quick, strong and streetwise boy who is very lively and sharp in front of goal.

"He is also a player that will always give you 100 per cent; supporters will see that straight away and take to him for sure."

Luckie admitted he was looking forward to the challenge of the Northern Premier League. He said: "I'm really happy to have signed for Hednesford, it is really good to be here and it will be a new challenge for me.

"This league will be a new test for me and that is something which I am also looking forward to.

"I worked with the manager for the last six months of last season and I felt that I did well with him. As soon as he mentioned about joining up with him again I wanted to take that chance."

Hednesford have also snapped up midfielder Michael McGrath. The 30-year-old has joined from Stratford Town.

"Michael is a ball playing midfielder who complements what we already have," McDonald said.

McGrath started his career with Aston Villa before having spells with Kidderminster Harriers, Redditch United, Stourport Swifts, Galway and Sligo Rovers in Ireland and then Rushall Olympic.

McGrath admitted that as soon as he met with the Pitmen manager then he knew he wanted to join him at Keys Park.

One player moving out of Keys Park is midfielder Sean Williams, who has decided to leave the club.

Cricket sessions for females only

CANNOCK Cricket Club is launching free female-only coaching sessions as part of the national This Girl Can initiative.

The sessions, for 11-to-15-year-olds, are on Wednesdays until July 20 from 6-7.30pm at the cricket club's home ground at Chase Park, in Church Lane, Hatherton. Call Graham Machin on 07836 371043 or email bandm@aol.com
